D. J. S. Pierce & Sons, who are operating a No. 3 giant on Poorman creek, have added a No. 1 giant and with the two giants are cutting out the gravel at a lively rate. The new bank that they opened up this fall is proving to be quite rich and the nuggets that it is yielding are very stimulating to a miners nerves.

John Devlin, who holds a responsible position with the Chicago Portrait Company and who has charge of the Company's business in Oregon and California stopped off from a trip south Saturday and went to Applegate where he spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Devlin, Sr., returning Monday to resume his journey.

Norman Gordon, who has a large farm on the Phoenix-Griffin Creek road, was in Jacksonville Saturday. Mr. Gordon was on his way home from a trip up Rogue river to Flounce Rock. He reported that on the Desert feed was fine, that the sheep that were pasturing it were in good condition and were wintering without the aid of hay.

Edward Roth, a Spokane mining man and Fritz Autenrieth from the Okanogan mining districts, were in Jacksonville Tuesday filing mining claims on quartz ledges that they have located three miles south east of Gold Hill. These men are experienced mining men and they are well pleased with the mining possibilities of Southern Oregon and think that this section will yet become one of the great mining camps of the United States. They believe that when the lower levels are reached that rich gold bearing rock will be found that will be far more profitable than the surface diggings now worked.

Two sacks of peanuts for a nickle at the Boss.

J. E. Davidson, superintendent of the Millionaire mine in the Blackwell district was at Central Point Monday to purchase lumber with which to enlarge the mess and bunk house at the mine. He came on to Jacksonville the same day and purchased a lot of hay for their teamsters who will haul ore from the mine to the railroad. The Company have ordered Supt. Davidson to get out two carloads of ore which will be shipped to a smelter. So soon as the the boarding house is enlarged he will put on a double shift of men and operate the mine day and night. Two shafts are opened, one now has a hoisting plant and the other will be supplied at once so that ore can be taken from both.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run-down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by City Drug Store. Price 50 cents.
