

LOCAL NOTES.

Ray Wilson and J. R. Thornberg, two young men from Roseburg, but now stopping in Medford were in Jacksonville Tuesday seeking a farm to rent.

F. D. Wagner, managing editor of the Ashland Tidings, and secretary of the Jackson County Republican Central Committee, was in Jacksonville over Monday night looking up a few little matters connected with the political situation in Jackson county.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a 7th Social at P. Ryan's Brick on Main Street on the evening of March 17th. Admission, 7c. Every 7th person will be admitted free. Seven efforts will be made to make this 7th social an enjoyment to those attending worth seven times the price of admission.

The young people of the Presbyterian church of this city have just purchased 70 copies of the songbook "The Chapel Hymnal," for use in their church. The choir of this church, under the leadership of Prof. Washburn, is receiving six copies of "The Church Choir," a monthly musical magazine published in the interest of church choirs and choruses, and as a result better singing by both choir and congregation may be expected in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thompson returned to their stock farm at Squaw Lake Saturday after spending a week in Jacksonville on a visit to relatives and to buy their spring supplies. They say the winter has not been more unpleasant at the Lake than out here in the valley and Mr. Thompson stated that stock were doing finely and that no feeding was necessary except when the snow was on the range. Mrs. Thompson will not teach this summer though she has had the offer of two schools.

J. W. Thomas was in Jacksonville Tuesday paying his taxes and attending to some other business matters. Mr. Thomas will leave in a short time for a visit to his old home at Chattanooga, Tennessee. Mr. Thomas expects to be gone for several months and will visit the Worlds Fair at St. Louis while East. Mr. Thomas came to Oregon in 1877 and bought the fine farm he now owns on the Jacksonville-Medford road. His wife having died last year he has rented his farm to F. M. Medley, a newcomer from Colorado and he now makes his home in Medford. Mr. Thomas is a veteran of the Civil War, serving four years in the Confederate army in the Twenty-sixth Tennessee infantry. He was in a number of the big battles of the West and was severely wounded in four different battles. At the battle of Franklin he was shot through the body and came near dying. He was taken prisoner twice, being confined at Camp Douglas the first time and at Camp Chase the second time. Mr. Thomas, like almost every one of the boys in gray, now feels that it was better for the South that the Confederacy was not established and that the South as a part of the United States will prosper more than if under a separate government, subject to the jealousies and danger from a rival republic at the North. No American now is more loyal than Mr. Thomas and for that matter all the other men who fought for what they then thought was right under the Stars and Bars of the Southern Confederacy.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by City Drug Store.
