

LOCAL NOTES.

Joe. Kester of Humbug was in Jacksonville Tuesday. Mr. Kester is opening up a claim on Lower Humbug that is promising to be quite profitable and which is very easily worked.

Word has been received from Mrs. Theo. Cameron, who is at Klamath Falls assisting in caring for her son Otis Krause and his wife who are both sick, that both Mr. and Mrs. Krause are rallying finely from their illness and that they are out of danger.

Miss Carrie Beekman, who is in San Francisco taking a full course in music, and who will graduate this spring, will be home in April for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beekman. Mr. B. B. Beekman, who is a prominent attorney in Portland, will be in Jacksonville to meet his sister and for a short visit with his parents.

Matt Calhoun the real estate hustler of Phoenix was in Jacksonville Wednesday. He stated that he was having more inquiries for real estate this spring than for the same period of time since he has been in the real estate office. Mr. Calhoun has a large number of fine tracts of land on his list and he has sold a number of good bargains this spring.

Al Learned, the Boss Candy Kitchen man, has so far recovered from his illness of three months that he is able to be about the streets on pleasant days, but he is not able to resume the management of his confectionery store, which is yet in charge of Joe Wetterer, who is an old hand at the business and a firstclass salesman.

Mrs. Otis Krause, who was lying at the point of death last Thursday, was operated upon by Drs. Hargus and Maston that night. At first there was very little hope for her life entertained but the operation proved very successful and she is now on a fair way to recovery. Her brother, Will Muller, and Mr. Krause's mother were summoned by telegraph from Medford and arrived here Saturday night and are now in attendance. Mrs. Krause is much better today—Klamath Falls Republican, March 10.

Edward Fawcett, John Byrne and Wm. Dorn, all of Watkins, were in Jacksonville on Monday night they coming in to purchase supplies. Mr. Fawcett is postmaster at Watkins but he has been trying faithfully for three months to lay aside his official honors and duties but as yet his successor has not relieved him of the office. Albert Collins has been appointed to the position, but as yet he has not sent his bonds in to Washington, but will do so soon and then take the office, when he will move it to his house about a quarter of a mile above the present location.

Chris Keegan and his sister Miss Anna arrived home Monday from Portland where Mr. Keegan had been for the past six weeks under a specialist's care for treatment of one of his eyes that was affected as a result of an attack of the smallpox. The injured eye has almost regained its former strength and he can see with it readily but will have to wear colored glasses for some time to shield it from strong light. Mr. Keegan went to Ashland Thursday to see his partner J.W. Jacobs, with whom he is conducting a marble works in that place. The young men had just opened their shop and Mr. Keegan had worked but two days when he was taken sick. Their business prospects are very flattering and Mr. Keegan hopes to be able to do his full part hereafter to make their venture a success.

Watkins Items.

Mr. E. C. Fawcett and John Byrne were in Jacksonville the fore part of the week. They report the roads as being in quite bad condition.

Fred Dorn has finished his part of the contract on the upper part of the new road, and left for California last week, where he has gone to spend the summer.

Sam Rogers, who has been spending the winter at Joe Creek near his claims, was down in Watkins Monday to get his mail and visit friends. He states that snow is quite deep at his place.

To all appearances the long continued rain is at an end. This has been the longest rain spell in this section for a number of years.

Geo. Waite, who has been spending a few days in town, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Jas. Loudon and Mrs. Dorn were visitors on Squaw Creek one day last week.

Mr. Stofer, an old time resident of this place was down from his mine last Friday.

The Byrne boys have been doing some clearing on their home place near the Squaw Creek road. This adds much to the appearance of the place as well as more good farming land.

Mr. Harr, who has been down with rheumatism for some time, is much improved at this writing.
