H. M. Coss, the Southern Oregon piano man, will be in Jacksonville with one of his reliable piano tuners the first of next week. Those wanting new pianos or their pianos tuned will do well to see him at that time. His past reliable business done here speaks well for his future business. Give him a call.

Rev. W. F. Shields, of Medford, is to deliver the sermon at the special Easter services that Malta Commandery No. 4 Knights Templar will hold at their asylum in the Masonic temple in Ashland. Rev. Shields is one of the ablest pulpit orators in this county, and the Ashland people will be treated to an address of good merit.

Miss Tillie Hooks left by Wenbt's stage Saturday for Kubli where she began the spring term of school in that district Monday. Miss Hooks is a teacher of much experience and has always been successful in her work and the patrons of the Kubli school may expect that she will conduct a school for them of which they may be proud.

Homer Davenport, who is conceded to be the greatest cartoonist in America and the world is to give an illustrated talk on "The Power of a Cartoon" at Ashland Monday evening under the auspices of the Chautauqua association. Mr. Davenport is a pleasing, captivating lecturer and his reminiscences and stories are illustrated, by him as he talks, on an easel and are humorous and highly entertaining. As Mr. Davenport is an Oregon boy, born and raised at Silverton all Oregonians take a special pride in his rapid rise from a farmer boy to the acknowledged leader of the cartoonist's profession of the world. His lecture will be a treat that all cultured people will enjoy and did it not take 32 hours to make the round trip from Jacksonville to Ashland by the present train service, or were the wagon roads passable for vehicles there would be a large attendance from this place at Mr. Davenport's lecture.

C. E. Gaddis, proprietor of the Medford creamery was in Jacksonville Tuesday in the interest of his creamery business. It is less than a year since Mr. Gaddis erected his creamery in Medford and began the manufacture of butter, but in that time he has built a fine trade. The dairymen are finding the creamery their most profitable market for their cream and Mr. Gaddis has the assurance that he will secure cream this season from many more dairymen than he had on his list last season. Mr. Gaddis handles the Sharpless Tubular separator which is admitted to be the most perfect separator on the market, as to thoroughness in saving cream and in simplicity of construction, and ease of cleaning and operating. He sells these separators either for cash or on favorable terms on instalment payments. These separators in handling the milk from a dairy of 10 to 15 cows will save enough extra cream over the old hand method of skimming to fully pay for the purchase price within two years. The day of home making butter is past, for it is a hard, useless task to the women folks on the farm and farm butter seldom brings the price in the market that creamery butter fetches. So careful has Mr. Gaddis been in the manufacture of butter at his creamery that Medford creamery butter has taken the lead in the markets of Southern Oregon for quality and full weight. As it is a home industry the Medford creamery should have every encouragement possible from the citizens of Jackson county, for its success is a most important factor to the prosperity of this county.

A Few Lines from "Uncle Sam."

Eugene, Oregon, 2-29-'04.

In order that I may accomplish "the greatest good to the greatest number" of Indian War Veterans, their widows, or in case of the death of these, their heirs, I will ask any and every person who can do so to give me the name not only of the living veterans or widows, but all who may have died since the close of the Rogue River War in 1856. To those who may consider this a strange request I will explain by saying that I have no doubt that the list of 635 names of veterans who have money due them, and of which I wrote you some time since, contains the names of many veterans who have passed away and the money is with the Auditor of the Treasury awaiting an owner. I could recite a number of cases of this kind where I have hunted up the owners who did not know of the surprise in store for them. When possible to do so give the name of the captain of the company. If this cannot be done send the veteran's proper name, and I will then search the records and report. Please enclose stamps for reply. To any who haven't obtained their pension or pay due them from the state, I will say that I am still "working for nothing and boarding myself" in my efforts to do good. I have made this letter brief, and ask all publishers who see it to kindly copy for the reasons given above. Yours truly,

"UNCLE SAM" HANDSAKER,
Veteran, 1855-6.
