SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson County.

The state of Oregon, Plaintiff vs.

Ben Haymond, as administrator of the estate of John Woods, deceased, and persons claiming to be the heirs of John Woods, deceased, Defendants.

Order of Court

Now upon application of A. E. Reames, Esq., District Attorney for the First Prosecuting Attorney District of Oregon, the above entitled Court hereby makes its order herein setting forth the following facts, viz:— that heretofore, to wit on the 27th day of March, 1903, one John Woods died intestate in Jackson County Oregon, leaving no widow, heirs or next of kin, and leaving real and personal property within said state and county of the aggregate appraised value of Seven Thousand Two Hundred Seventy Two Dollars and Eighty Nine Cents; that thereafter, the County Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County duly appointed Ben Haymond as the administrator of the estate of said John Woods, deceased, — that said Haymond duly qualified as such administrator and ever since has been and is the duly qualified and acting administrator of said estate; that, as such administrator, the said Haymond is in possession of the realty belonging to the said estate, as particularly described in the information herein filed; that said estate has been fully administered; that at the time of his death, the said John Woods was seized of the realty in said information described; that on the 17th day of December, 1903, the Honorable George E. Chamberlain, Governor of Oregon, directed the District Attorney of the First Prosecuting Attorney District of Oregon, to file an information in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County wherein said property is situated, in the name of the State of Oregon, for the recovery of all said property; that on the 17th day of December, 1903, the said Governor of Oregon duly appointed George H. Durham as special counsel for the State of Oregon to appear in said cause on behalf of plaintiff; that the plaintiff claims and demands judgement that all said property in the hands of said Ben Haymond, as such administrator of the estate of John Woods, deceased, has escheated to and become vested in the State of Oregon.

And, in view of the premises, it is further ordered that all persons interested in said estate of John Woods, deceased, if any there be, shall appear in said Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County, in the said proceedings of the State of Oregon vs. Ben Haymond as administrator of the estate of John Woods, deceased, and show cause, if any they have, within six weeks from the date hereof, why the title to said real and personal property of said estate of John Woods, deceased, should not vest in the State of Oregon, and it is further ordered that this order shall be published for six successive weeks from the date hereof, in the Jacksonville Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published in said Jackson County, Oregon, and it is further ordered that until the further order of this Court, the County Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County and the said Ben Haymond, as such administrator or otherwise, are hereby enjoined and restrained from, in any wise, disposing of any of the property of the said estate and further proceedings in said County Court in said estate, are hereby stayed until the further order of this Court.

Dated January 13., 1904.
