CLUBBING TERMS.

The Sentinel and the Weekly Oregonian will be sent to one address for $2 a year. The Sentinel gives the Jackson county news and the Oregonian gives the state, national and world news, thus a reader is able to cover the entire news field at about the price of but one paper.

TRIAL SUBSCRIPTIONS—The Jacksonville Sentinel will be sent to any address, at any postoffice in the United States, for four weeks for 10 cents. All subscriptions, regular or trial, will be promptly stopped at the date of expiration, unless a renewal is received.

Friday, April 29, 1904.

The Sentinel will soon be one year old and from an uncertain beginning, for there were many handicaps to the paper's success, it has overcome all obstacles and has come to be one of the leading papers of Jackson County, both in influence and in circulation. Its subscription list has grown steadily from the date of the first issue, though no special canvassing has been done and not a week has passed but what the list was larger than for the previous week. The increase has been very large of late, from Gold Hill alone 21 new subscriptions were received during the past ten days, and equally flattering gains have been made at many of the other postoffices in Jackson county. The progressive element of the county have come to recognize the Sentinel as the champion of all measures that tend for the upbuilding of the county. The general public have learned that the Sentinel is reliable in its statements of facts both editorial local and that it possesses the independence and the courage of its convictions to stand by any measure that is for the general good and appreciating this quality is why the paper's subscription list has had such a steady growth and its permanency as one of the leading newspapers of Southern Oregon is now an assured fact.

Hood River is decidedly in it this year as a convention city. The first week in June the Northwest Nurserymen's Association will hold their annual meeting in Hood River. The third week in June the town will entertain the state encampment of the Oregon G. A. R. and the last week in September the Oregon Editorial Association will meet in Hood River on the date on which the Hood River Fruit Fair is held. The citizens of Hood River fully realize the value to their town of public gatherings both as a cheap and highly successful method of advertising the town and the adjacent country and of adding to the business of the town for each gathering will leave from $250 to $1000 in the town.

Father J. D. Murphy has been assigned by Bishop Christie to Eugene and will leave for his new field of labor in about two weeks or so soon as a priest arrives to take charge of this parish. This change is a promotion of considerable importance and is a deserved recognition on the part of the Bishop of the scholarly ability and faithful work of Father Murphy, who is a young man that will yet attain distinction in his chosen life work and his many friends in Jacksonville and the other sections of Jackson county, while deeply regretting his leaving the county and pleased at the new honor that has been given him.

A delegation of Jacksonville Redmen made up of Adolf Schulz, Fred Fick, W. H. McDaniel, Albert Gangwich, David Coulter and Charles H. Paine visited Weatonka Tribe of Medford Thursday evening, to assist their neighbor tribesmen in the ordeal of making Palefaces into Redmen, the Medford Redmen being yet new to the business. Several candidates were put through and the boys report a jolly time.

LOCAL NOTES.

Frank Mengoz came in Friday from his mine on Elliott creek to meet his partner, Lewis Wagner on business in regard to installing a quartz mill on a mine which they own in the Blue River district.

Miss Gertrude Allen, of Ashland, has been in Jacksonville during the week at the home of her uncle and aunt Rev. and Mrs. S. Snyder. Miss Allen is a dress-maker and has been doing sewing for her aunt.

Elder J. J. Clark, of Grants Pass, arrived in Jacksonville Friday and held Services that evening in the Advent church. He will also hold services this Saturday evening and Sunday evening to which the general public is invited.

Chas. M. Wood and his wife arrived last week from Nolton, California, and will spend the summer here. Mrs. Wood is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reeve. Mr. Wood has secured a position in the Iowa Lumber Company's sawmill.

Mrs. Amelia Elmer has had her dwelling house made more comfortable and more cozy by having a large bay-window built to the parlor room and new paper and paint to the rooms. The work was done by Fred Fick, a guarantee that it is a first-class job.

Hans Hoenes, fourth assistant manager of F. K. Duci & Co's. big drygoods store in Medford, was in Jacksonville Friday afternoon on business for his house. Hans is a bright hustling boy and has the making in him of a successful business man if he but avoids the temptations that beset the pathway of a town boy.

Mrs. Addie Colvig, Grand Chief of Honor of the Degree of Honor, returned this Friday from a 10 days trip through the northern part of the state on work in the interest of the Degree of Honor. Mrs. Colvig visited a number of lodges finding them all in a prosperous condition. She attended a district convention of Degree of Honor lodges of Yamhill and Washington counties that was held at McMinnville last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Moore will leave Tuesday for her home at Baker City after spending three months in Jacksonville, being summoned here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. B. F. Newberry. Mrs. Newberry is now in her usual good health and Mrs. Moore will again join her husband, who is one of the leading attorneys of Baker City. Mrs. Moore was for 10 years a teacher in the Jacksonville school and was one of the most popular teachers in this school.

C. P. Briggs has bought the house and two lots on the corner of Fifth and C streets, and south of the court house, of Mrs. Susie Neil and he will move his family to their new home this Saturday. His purchase is one of the most desirable residence properties in Jacksonville and the improvements in paint and repairs to the house and fence that he will make will give the property a modern appearance quite in keeping with the progressive spirit of new Jacksonville.

The funeral of the late Emanuel King was held from the family residence in Medford Sunday at 2 o'clock P. M. and was attended by a very large concourse of friends. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. W. F. Shields and interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery where the exercises were held by the Odd Fellows and the Grand Army, both orders of which he was a member. A delegation of Grand Army men attended from Jacksonville composed of Chris Keegan, Frank Kasshafer, John Renault, Alex Thompson, W. R. Hawk and James Hards.

C. E. Davidson, who with W. H. Miller has been successfully conducting a general notion store, has decided to again take up mining in which he is an expert and which work is more to his liking than the confinement of town life and this Saturday he transfers his interest in the store to Lester Bailey, a brother of his wife and of Mrs. Miller. Mr. Bailey has been for the past year in the employ of Holmer Bros. grocery men in Ashland, and he is a bright hustling young man who will be a worthy addition to the business fraternity of Jacksonville and a capable partner to Mr. Miller. The business of the firm is steadily increasing and several new lines have been added this spring, until now in addition to a very complete stock of fresh confections, tobacco, cigars, notions, tropical fruits and summer beverages, their stock embraces fresh vegetables and fruit, feed and a full line of all kinds of canned goods. The firm has also fitted up a clean, attractive and commodious icecream parlor and will have during the warm months, icecream the equal to the best to be had in Portland or San Francisco.

Rev. John W. McGhee, of Walla Walla arrived in Jacksonville Tuesday to spend a week with his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Day after which he will resume his journey to Los Angeles, where he will attend the National Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. McGhee is one of the earliest pioneers of Rogue River Valley. He first was in the Valley in the spring of 1851 when a party from the Willamette Valley he passed through here on his way to Yreka, near where he spent the summer in mining. In the fall he returned to Rogue River Valley and he and his partner, named Jackson, took up donation claims above Table Rock, he having the land now owned by W. R. Dickerson. Their plan was to put in a ferry on Rogue river but fear of hostile Indians caused them to abandon their claims and go to the Willamette Valley. Rev. McGhee married in the Willamette Valley and resided there for many years afterward moving to Walla Walla. He was 83 years old Friday but he is yet hale and hearty and able to carry on his clerical work. Sunday morning by invitation of Rev. Snyder, he will preach in the Methodist Church.

There being no school convenient to the Stansell mill on Coleman creek the settlers of that vicinity engaged Miss Abbie Henry of this place to teach a private school for their children which she began last Monday. Miss Henry is a graduate of the Jacksonville High school and she is an industrious, talented young lady who will do her best for her school and be quite certain to make a success of her work.

County court will meet next Wednesday. The principle business, other than the usual routine order, will be a number of road petitions. One is for a change in the road from Anderson Creek to Phoenix. This road is about three miles in length and the change was asked for at a previous term of court was defeated by a remonstrance by reason of faulty petition. A change of a quarter of a mile in length in the Jackson Creek road just below Jacksonville will be asked for and a new road, half a mile in length is wanted to connect the Medford-Jacksonville and the Medford-Griffin Creek road. This road is a mile and a half west of Medford and is now traveled as a private road.

A. H. Brailsford who recently arrived in Ashland from Buffalo, New York, with his family, was in Jacksonville over Thursday night, while on his return from a trip through Applegate Valley and Josephine county. Mr. Brailsford left the East nearly two months ago and visited a large part of the western states, giving close attention to California as he had some thoughts of locating in that state but he is better pleased with Rogue River Valley than any section that he has seen and he has decided to locate here and buy a stock farm, and take up the raising of fine stock. Mr. Brailsford was a former Colorado stock man, but for several years past has been a wholesale lumber dealer in Buffalo.

Dates to Remember.

Saturday, April 30—Republican Primaries for electing delegates to county convention at Gold Hill.
Monday, May 2—Regular meeting Jacksonville Hose Company.
Tuesday, May 3—Meeting of Jacksonville town council.
Tuesday, May 3—Meeting of Medford town council.
Friday, May 6—Republican county convention meets at Gold Hill.
Saturday, May 7,—Special meeting in Medford of Jackson County Stockmen's Association.

Wednesday the marriage took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bursell on the Jacksonville-Central Point road of Miss Ellen Bursell and Mr. Frank L. Benson, Rev. Sanford Snyder officiating. Miss Bursell has been one of Jackson county's most successful teachers and she is a young lady of fine accomplishments, popular in her circle of acquaintances and well worthy of the love of the man that was so fortunate as to win her for his wife.

Mr. Benson is from Minnesota and has been a resident of Jackson county for the past three years and he is a young man of high integrity, industrious and of good standing in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Benson left Wednesday evening for Minnesota where they will visit his relatives after which they will attend the World's Fair at St. Louis and then return to this county to take up their residence on a farm near Central Point.

Mrs. Susie Neil will move to Ashland next week where she has bought property and will hereafter reside. The removal of Mrs. Neil will be a loss seriously felt in musical circles in Jacksonville, both as to her service as a teacher and helper in public entertainments and her little daughter, Marion, who has been missed for her remarkable musical talent has contributed largely to the musical features of various public gatherings for as a pianist she has wonderful genius and plays with a depth of feeling and delicacy of touch seldom equaled by persons of her age and training. Mrs. Neil and little Marion have the best wishes of a host of Jacksonville friends for their continued success in the field of musical endeavor.

The Republicans of Jacksonville held their primary this Saturday and elected Thos. Cameron, John Huff, Jr., Arthur Lewis and Phil Gieve delegates for South Jacksonville and Dr. J. W. Robinson, W. G. Kenney, Fred Fick, S. P. De Roboam for North Jacksonville delegates to the county convention at Gold Hill.

One of the best attractions to come to the Opera House this season will be the 4 Georges. If you want to laugh, this is just what you have been waiting for, and the specialties are the best that have been given here. The 4 Georges come to the U. S. Hall for one night only, May 7. Of all the companies on the road this season, none have given better satisfaction than the 4 Georges Co. The Eastern press are unanimous in stating there are no better artists in the business. Prices 35 & 50 cents. Children 25.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at City Drug Store.

Cures Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St. Topeka, Kansas, says: "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is sweet and pleasant to the taste." 25c, 50c, $1.00 a bottle. At City Drug Store.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ills., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle. Sold by City Drug Store.
