

Council Proceedings.

The Jacksonville Council met Tuesday evening at the Town Hall with Mayor Britt, Councilmen Cameron, Nunan and Huffer, Recorder Dox, Marshal Kenney and street Commissioner Wendt present.

Application for a street light on South Oregon street was laid over until the next meeting of council.

Report of Street Commissioner Henry Wendt for the month of April was read and approved. Commissioner Wendt's report shows that he had spent for work $156.50 of which $29 was for his salary and $127.50 was for labor. At the beginning of the month he had $96.50 drawn from road fund in hands of county treasurer $91.85. Commissioner Wendt reported that he had broke his plow beyond repair while using it on road work. He could purchase a large second-hand plow suitable for road work for $10 and if permitted to buy it and to use it in his farm work would take good care of it and that he would make no charge for his broken plow. He was authorized to buy the plow.

The matter of appropriating money toward the improvement of the Jacksonville-Willow Springs road was brought up by Councilman Huffer and after a brief discussion was laid over until next meeting of the council pending fuller information as to extent and kind of improvement to the road.

A renewal of the liquor license for six months was granted to E. A. Helms.

Marshal W. G. Kenney reported that persons had been playing on the streets. As a former permit allowed the boys to play catch on the streets he did not wish to entirely forbid the pastime on the street. The Marshal was authorized to permit the boys to throw ball on the street but if they become too careless to stop their playing. The annual complaints about reckless bicycle riders were considered and the Marshal was ordered to strictly enforce the ordinance and to give notice to bicyclists by posting cloth posters along the principal sidewalks.

PHOENIX, - OREGON

Eden Items.

John Wright and family spent Sunday with Phoenix friends.

Uncle Joshua Young of Ashland is visiting at the Hartley home this week.

Mrs. Tilman Hartley and children of Ashland Sundayed with their many friends in this section.

The farmers and orchard men are rushing work again since the splendid rain of last week, everything is growing nicely, corn planting will be in progress in a few days.

A great many (in places fully one half) of the two year old apple trees on the Voorhies place are now dying after having started to leave out. Losses are reported from other orchards also, but this is the largest two year old planting in this section. Various theories are offered but we notice in the low places where the land is of a very heavy sticky formation and poor subdrainage is where the most of the sick trees are found.
