Misses Gertrude Wilson and Katharine Wait of Medford are visiting relatives and friends in Glendale. Miss Wilson is a niece of the Redfield brothers here.—Glendale News.

Mrs. P. P. Prim, widow of the late Judge Prim of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Pengra, of Ashland, a sister of Mrs. Prim are visiting C. A. Pengra and wife in Glendale.—Glendale News.

T. C. Norris has moved his second-hand store and shoe shop to Medford to a large room in the Halley block and adjoining the postoffice. Mr. Norris will continue in the real estate business and leave the active management of the store to his brother J. R. Norris, who recently arrived from North Carolina and who is quite as much of a business man as himself and he will continue to have W. R. Hawk in charge of the shoe and harness shop. Mr. Hawk is a first-class workman and will give satisfaction to all entrusting work to him.

Mrs. Max Muller and son Will have moved into their old home on California street. They have been away nearly two years, living in Oakland, Cal., and Medford, but were suited nowhere else so well as in Jacksonville. Mrs. Muller recently purchased the interests of the heirs in the old home and during the week has had the house thoroughly overhauled. Mr. Muller is uncertain as yet in what business he will engage, but intends to remain here and identify himself with the business interests of the town.

George Walter was in Jacksonville Wednesday from his home on Humbug creek on business in connection with the estate of the late Johanna Blecher of which he is the administrator. The estate consists of some 1200 acres of timber and grazing land located on Poormans creek four miles south of Jacksonville. The land belonged formerly to Henry Blecher who died last year leaving it to his sister and she dying this past winter the property will go to relatives in Germany, there being no known heirs in America. The estate will be closed up and the land sold some time this fall.

Elmer Lester returned Wednesday from California to resume his position in the Jacksonville ball team. Mr. Lester played with the boys last season and proved himself to be one of the best pitchers in Southern Oregon and manager George Neuber made a special effort to have him in the team for this season. For the past three months Mr. Lester has been at Pomona, California, where he and his brother, Thomas, worked at their trade of plastering. As work is plentiful and wages high in that state Thomas Lester will remain there, but Elmer will spend the summer in Jacksonville.

Jack and Jim McNulty, two well known Applegate miners, have struck a rich quartz ledge on Spencer gulch. The ledge can be readily traced on the surface for over 400 yards and has a width of four feet of gold bearing rock. McNulty Bros., have a shaft 48 feet deep and the rock has been growing steadily richer. One sample of 1½ ounces burned out in a frying pan yielded 70 cents and another of half a pound of quartz pounded out in a mortar gave 75 cents. The McNultys will fully develop their mine and if it continues to show up as well as it has so far, they will interest capitalists to go in with them and put up a mill.

To get perfect rest use one of those silk floss or cotton felt mattresses. They are the best. C. W. Conklin.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and side no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed. For sale at City Drug Store.
