

LOCAL NOTES.

A teacher is wanted in the Leeds district on Upper Rogue river for the summer term.

E. D. Briggs, one of Ashland's well known attorneys, was in Jacksonville Monday looking after legal matters in the circuit court.

Bert Peachey, a young farmer boy of Eagle Point and an amateur photographer of considerable ability, was in Jacksonville last Sunday.

FOR SALE—A ladies bicycle so nearly new that it has not been marred and is in perfect repair. Will be sold at a bargain. Enquire of Mrs. Oris Crawford.

If you are willing to help build up Jacksonville by patronizing Jacksonville people and need any thing in the shoe line, just take a look at the new stock of shoes lately received at Cronemiller's. All the best makes, and in quality first-class and style and finish the latest.

A. G. Swanson, who with Hermann Kummer and Mr. Healey has been mining on Upper Applegate since last fall, will leave next week for Seattle on his way to Nome where he will resume mining in that district. Prior to coming to Jacksonville last fall Mr. Swanson had been in Alaska for five years and made money at mining, and he goes back to try his luck once more.

Peter Denhof, one of the young men employed at the Jackson County Lumber Company's sawmill, has received a letter from his home in Gooding, Michigan, stating that his brother Bert Denhof aged 24 years, had died of appendicitis on May 7. Owing to his sudden death Mr. Denhof did not learn of his brother's illness until it was too late to go to see him, but he will go home to visit his parents this summer.

NOTICE—I have a goodly number of odds and ends in the way of views of Oregon Scenery from 4x5 up to 8x10 that I will sell at almost your own price as I do not wish to carry them with me. I also have a good supply of Book Marks, Paper Weights, Ornamental Fans, Albums and Photo Easels. Call at the Photo Tent.

Jacksonville is soon to have a first-class stock of jewelry which is to be put in by J. W. Hickel, who has been conducting a jewelry shop here since last fall. Mr. Hickel is a veteran jeweler and a man known to be honest beyond question and a thorough workman and he has built up a good trade and now that he can put in a stock of clocks, watches and jewelry he will be able to build up a business that will be a credit to himself and to Jacksonville.

Frank Huffer expects to leave next week for Cinnabar Springs where he will spend a couple of months at that famous health resort. Mr. Huffer has resided for several years past in Tacoma where he was a successful attorney, but by overwork he injured his health and he is now taking a rest and he comes back to Southern Oregon, where he spent his boyhood days, to spend a time camping out and enjoying the bracing mountain air of this section.

A. O. Freel, who for the past two years has been a clerk in Cranfill & Robinett's store at Central Point, has given up his position and is now in Supt. Daily's office while the latter is out on the campaign, spending Wednesdays and Saturdays at the Court House. Mr. Freel was formerly a teacher and one of the most successful in Jackson county and will likely again take up the work, he having a fair prospect of securing a position in the Jacksonville school.

Do not see the World's Fair until the middle of June is the advice of friends in St. Louis. Everything will be in order then and you will avoid the excessive heat of the summer there. Write to Mrs. P. Ritner of Medford, Oregon, and make arrangements to be one of her party. It will be an education for life that you can not afford to lose.

Remember Hull the Artist is in town.

Robert H. Jonas was a Jacksonville visitor last Sunday, on personal business—in fact there are a good many young men visit Jacksonville from time to time. Mr. Jonas is a popular young school teacher but he is not teaching this summer, as his father's health is not good and he is caring for the home farm near Eagle Point. Mr. Jonas closed recently a successful term of school at Paisley, Lake county, where he received $80 a month salary. He may go back to Lake county this fall to teach as he has the offer of several good schools.

Theo. Cameron, Judge Hanna, Wm. M. Colvig and Peter Applegate were in Ashland Monday evening to attend a Republican rally held in that city. The rally was the opening of the Republican campaign in Jackson county and was attended by all the candidates of that party, each making a short address after being introduced by Chairman E. T. Staples. Addresses were also made by Hon. C. B. Watson and Hon. W. M. Colvig. Though gotten up on short notice the meeting was well attended and enthusiastic and was an encouraging beginning for the campaign.
