

On next Tuesday the Artisans will hold their semi-annual election of officers after which they will entertain Dr. G. C. Eshelman of Salem, supreme instructor for the United Artisans of Oregon who will deliver an address on topics pertaining to the order. A short program of vocal and instrumental selections will close the exercises after which a luncheon will be served in the banquet hall. The attendance of all members is desired.

Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Washburn went to Ashland last Saturday and remained with relatives in that city until Monday evening when they returned that the Professor could begin his school duties after Decoration Day vacation.

County Clerk Orth and Sheriff Rader have been busy this week getting the ballots and election supplies arranged and sent to the various precincts. W. H. Miller left Thursday with the ballots and supplies of all the precincts in the north part of the county and J. A. Wilson took out those for the precincts up Rogue river and Sheriff Rader distributed the ballots to the remainder of the precincts.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can any thing be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by City Drug Store.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by the City Drug Store.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coahuella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reasons to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by City Drug Store.

Furnished Hotel At A Bargain.

At Newport, on Yaquina bay, the famous Oregon summer seaside resort that is destined to equal the great Newport resort on the Atlantic coast, a 13 room hotel, one block from the main business section, fully furnished with good bedding, carpets, furniture, and kitchen fixtures, and the woodroom full of wood, is offered for sale at a bargain for cash, or will trade for land in Rogue River Valley. Title perfect, house in good repair and supplied with hot and cold water on over and upper floors, bath room, wood room, closets and all conveniences of a modern boarding house. The house is paying property and is only offered for sale by reason of the owner's wife having asthma and not able to live in a low altitude. Full particulars by addressing the Sentinel office.

The June number of the Woman's Home Companion is timely and summery. The chief feature is "A Bird's-eye View of the Panama Canal" the first picture of kind ever published. Articles appropriate to the month are "Commencement Merry-making at Girls' College" and "The Wonders of Modern Travel." Onoto Watanabe writes of "The Marvelous Miniature Trees of Japan." There is a thrilling story "The Patient Heroine" of the Johnstown Flood, and a wealth of short fiction including "Out of the Ashes," by Ralph Henry Barbour "When Fortune Knocked," "Over the Garden Wall" and "The Matrimonial Adventures of Bertie." Gardening articles for June, interesting Nature-study, "A Trip to the St. Louis Fair," are all just what the up-to-date family wants. PHOENIX, - OREGON

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good, reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by City Drug Store.

As a part of the mining exhibit that the Sentinel is getting up, a rocker, pan shovel and pick are wanted. They should be veterans and should show the hard service of many a prospecting trip. These old relics will add much to the interest of the exhibit to Eastern people visiting Jacksonville, and the Sentinel will appreciate the favor if its mining friends can send in the old tools, the like of which has made both millionaires and paupers.
