An exchange says the most prosperous town is the one where there is the greatest evidence of local pride. It doesn't require mansions and great lawns and the trappings of wealth to make a prosperous town or city, but order, cleanliness and the evidences of civic pride are an absolute essential. The neat, clean, well-kept home with the evidence of personal interest, clean streets and back alleys free from rubbish, the things that may be possessed by all save the really unfortunate, are the things which make a town inviting and upon which prosperity in a large measure rests.

County Officers Sworn In.

Tuesday the newly elected and re-elected officials were sworn in and took up their official duties. Judge Chas. Prim retired from the county judge's office and opened his law office in the vacant room adjoining the county judge's office and takes up again the practice of law. Judge George W. Dunn, though having a thorough business training, has no legal training, but he is industriously putting in every moment of spare time in the study of an intellectual will be fully versed in all points of law that may come before the county court. There is no change in the clerk's office, sheriff's and superintendent's offices. In the clerk's office Mr. Orth will retain his sister, Miss Ella Orth, as his deputy and Mr. Rader will retain Oris Crawford as deputy sheriff. Both Miss Orth and Mr. Crawford have made very efficient deputies. In the recorder's office Peter Applegate retires and his efficient deputy, Walter Applegate, has returned to his home in Ashland. Mr. Applegate will go into office again the first of January when Wilbur Jones retires from assessorship. Robert Dow, who was deputy county treasurer, takes the recorder's office, but will hire no deputy at present, he doing all the work at present. For his second term County Treasurer D. H. Miller has made Louis Ulrich his deputy—a good appointment.

The various officers who give bonds are as follows:

John S. Orth, county clerk, $11,000. United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company surety.

P. H. Daily, school superintendent, $1000. Gus Newbury and A. O. Freeland sureties.

Geo. F. Learned, constable Gold Hill, $1000. J. H. Beeman and E. C. Wells sureties.

W. R. Williams, constable Central Point, $1000. L. W. Coe and J. J. Brown sureties.

E. W. Tryer, constable Medford, $1000. J. W. Mitchell and Tom Collins sureties.

Chas. N. Warren, justice of peace of Woodville. G. F. Schmittlein and C. E. Sams sureties.

J. B. R. Morelock, justice Gold Hill.

C. C. McClendon and J. H. Beeman sureties.

Frank Kasshafer, constable, Jacksonville. J. Nunan and Theo. Cameron, sureties.

Henry Dox, justice, Jacksonville. D. Libin and Jean DeRobaam sureties.

J. M. Rader, sheriff and tax collector $20,000. S. A. Carlton, Thos. F. Nichols, Wm. Ulrich and G. W. Nichols sureties.

M. N. Long, constable of Ashland $1000. H. S. Evans and E. J. Farlow sureties.

County Court Proceedings.

County court met for the July session Wednesday. This was the first official work of County Judge Geo. W. Dunn and Commissioner George Brown but they stepped into the work like veterans and with Commissioner Josiah Patterson they put business through with the same thoroughness and dispatch that characterized the court when Judge Prim and Commissioner Riley held positions in it.

The bonds of the various county officers were approved and the usual grist of road and other expense bills were passed on. The purchase of supplies for county officials was placed in the hands of the county judge instead of allowing each official to do his own purchasing as has been the rule heretofore. But this order does not affect the clerk's office, a special law permitting clerks to purchase their supplies.

A contract was made with J. Hartman to put in jetties, to be made of piling covered with planking, for the protection of the Bear creek bridge at Central Point and the bridge across Antelope creek at 80 cents per foot, linear measure.

John Blaers was reappointed ferryman for Rogue river ferry for a year at a salary of $200.

In compliance to a petition for a bridge across Egan creek. County surveyor G. W. Patterson.

A certificate of tax sale was granted by the county to N. G. Seaman for lots 3 and 4, sec. 29, tp. 36., S. R. 4. W. for $29.35.

Petition of Lee Watkins, et. al. for a county road was granted and G. T. Jones, S. A. Carlton, W. H. Patrick were appointed to meet on July 20 to survey and locate said road.

Report of surveyor and viewers accepted on road petitioned for by Theo. Glaks, et. al. and road ordered opened.

A change in the Bybee bridge road through lands of the Jackson County Improvement Company was granted.

A buggy, opentop in perfect repair and almost new, and of standard make will be sold for $30, if taken at once. Enquire at Schmidts hotel, Jacksonville.

Buncom Items.

Mrs. Ella Cook of Jacksonville is visiting at A. B. Saltmarsh's this week.

Phil. Gleave and Jim Elliot of Jacksonville were in this section fishing last week.

A. S. Kleinhammer, Ed Saltmarsh and Osia Saltmarsh were in Jacksonville Saturday.

Will Kleinhammer of Medford was in this section visiting his brother Arthur Kleinhammer at this place.

Mrs. S. P. Fissell of Ashland was here visiting her daughter Miss Ramona who is teaching school in this district.

family, Harry Linch, Bird Saltmarsh and family, John Robinson and family, Messrs. Ed Saltmarsh, Ed Cockern, Miss Edith Colman and Mrs. Ella Cook, numbering twenty-two in all.

There were abundance of fish caught and in the afternoon races were run, and at night there were fire works and a dance; music was furnished by John Robinson. The roads were in fine condition and every one enjoyed their ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bailey arrived home Wednesday from a two weeks visit with relatives on Lower Applegate. They, with a party, made the trip to Grayback mountain and spent the Fourth at the snow line where they had a jolly time snowballing and trout fishing, the brook teeming with fish.

Uncle Billy Robinson had a visit last week from his brother S. V. Robinson of Junction City. S. V. Robinson is also an Oregon pioneer and was in the Indian War of 1855-56, serving in Capt. Kelsey's company. He was a resident of this locality in the '50's and mined at Sterling and other camps.

John G. Buzzell, licensee, having the past week; Jay C. Buzzell and Josephine C. Johnson, Thomas Collins and Kate M. Plymale, John Bailey and Matilda E. Wyatt, Harold H. Read and Maud E. Fuson, James S. Vincent and Bessie E. Hanson, George A. Andrews and Celia A. Randles, Anderson Mee and Lydia Willitts, William Hawks and Bessie Chappell.

George N. Lewis, who in addition to being noble grand of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10 I. O. O. F. is deputy district grand master for Jackson county, and holding such position is installing officer for the Odd Fellow lodge in this county. Last Saturday evening Mr. Lewis accompanied by Chas. Baseye, who assisted in the lodge work, went to Gold Hill and installed the officers for Gold Hill Lodge No. 129, they being as follows: J. C. Masterson N. G.; Walter Dugy, V. G.; J. A. Harvey, R. S.; A. J. T. Smith, treasurer. L. C. Applegate, F. S.; Geo. McDonald, warden; L. Vincent, conductor; J. W. Hays, R. S. N. G.; Nelson Herbert, L. S. N. G.; Thos. West, R. S. V. G.; W. Bross, L. S. V. G.; I. Householder, R. S. S.; C. Householder, L. S. S.; C. W. Brimley, I. G. Thursday Mr. Lewis and Mr. Baseye went to Ashland and installed the officers for the Odd Fellows lodge in that place. This Saturday Mr. Lewis will install the officers for Jacksonville Lodge No. 10 and on Saturday next week he will visit Medford Lodge No. 83 and install their officers. Mr. Lewis is well up in the work of his order and makes a most efficient officer.

C. W. Geddes the new superintendent for the Blue Ledge copper mine arrived with his wife and little daughter from Denver last Monday. Wednesday Mr. Geddes went to the mine to arrange for a house for his family, returning Friday. Saturday he and Mrs. Geddes left for Blue Ledge to take up their residence there for the summer. Mr. Geddes will have full charge of all operations connected with the development of the Blue Ledge mines and expects to rush work with the greatest possible speed. Driving additional tunnels will be the principal work and to do that three shifts of men will be put on, working eight hours each so that there will be no cessation of work day or night. As to other plans of the company regarding the smelter and the railroad, Mr. Geddes had nothing to give out. His chief endeavor just now appears to be to gather information pertaining to the topographic features of the country, cost of labor and supplies and to gain a general knowledge of the mining conditions of Southern Oregon and in this endeavor he displays all the tact and determination of a hustling commercial drummer. Mr. Geddes has been, until recently, in the employ of the Guggenheim Mining Exploration Company of New York, the largest mining company in the world and which numbers among its engineers, John Hays Hammond, who draws a higher salary than any other engineer in America or Europe. Mr. Geddes was for two years under Mr. Hammond in carrying on some extensive operations. Mr. Geddes is a quiet, unassuming young man, but that he is exceedingly well posted on all features pertaining to the mining industry is shown by conversing with him. That the Blue Ledge is now to be developed in a plan to be seen, for the business-like and extensive preparations that Mr. Geddes, Dr. Reddy and the other local representatives of the company are making is proof that it is no promotion scheme. That a great copper smelter will be in operation in the vicinity of Jacksonville within the near future is a certainty that is safe to bank on.
