

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

Applegate Items.

The Fourth was spent very pleasantly but quietly here; not even a picnic.

Ed Shafer, Wm. and Fred Wright have been spending a few days camping out in the mountains toward Steamboat.

A. P. Dittmar is again on Applegate doing some prospecting.

Fred Benedict has been very ill for the past week. Dr. Bowersox, of Jacksonville was in attendance.

Mrs. S. C. Wright left last week for Sheridan, Oregon, to visit relatives this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin spent a few days camping and fishing at Squaw Lake last week and report having a very nice time.

Martin and Henry Pernall attended the ball games at Jacksonville Sunday.

The hail storm did not do as much damage here as at other places. It injured the garden to a small extent but the corn and hops escaped.

Watkins Items.

Mr. C. C. Purcel was a visitor at Watkins Friday.

Mr. Jones, of the Blue Lead made a trip to Jacksonville last week.

Mr. Harr left Wednesday for Fort Klamath, where he expects to stay a few weeks.

Mr. John Spiker, a prominent mining man of this place has gone to Josephine county to be absent a couple of weeks.

Mrs. E. O'Brien, of Lower Applegate, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. T. Byrne, of Squaw Creek, returned home Sunday.

Ed. Spencer has moved to Said Creek this week where he will do assessment work on some mines he has in that vicinity.

Spiker and Spencer Co. have moved their place of residence. Their friends will now find them residing just within the city limits.

We are glad to say that the hail storm of last week that played such sad havoc with the crops in many parts of the valley, passed around us doing no damage whatever.

The three year old son of E. C. Faucett has had quite a serious time of it. While eating cherries the child put a cherry pit in each nostril. With much difficulty the parents finally were able to remove one of them, but they were obliged to take the child to Jacksonville to the doctor for the removal of the other.

Big Sticky Items.

John Smith, Jr., has gone to Eastern Oregon for the summer.

Miss Venita Hamilton, of Medford, is the guest of Mrs. V. T. McCray.
