ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

W. R. Stansell came up from his mill he is operating on Pleasant Creek near Gold Hill, Friday to assist Mrs. Stansell in her preparations for the family going to the mill to spend the next two months when they will return to Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Stansell left Sunday for the mill where life these hot days in the green woods will be a delightful change from the heat of the open valley about Jacksonville. Mr. Stansell states that lumber cutting is progressing very satisfactorily at his mill and that he is getting out a fine lot of pine and fir lumber. He is yarding it now to allow it to season but will begin with a force of teams to haul to the railroad about the first of September.

J. C. Barnum, president of the Rogue River Valley Railroad Company went to Portland Wednesday on a short business trip. During Mr. Barnum's absence Will Barnum will be engineer on the train and Harry Wilcox, son of Scott M. Wilcox S. P. agent at Medford, will do duty as conductor. Johnnie Barnum, the regular conductor is yet in Portland where he has been for the past month, and will not be home for some time yet.

Prof. J. M. Horton, principal of the Arcata California school the past year has been engaged for the coming year at a salary of $1500, which is a raise of $150 over the salary paid him last year.
