Clarace M. Reeve left Thursday for Happy Camp, Calif., where he will be employed for the winter in the Plastic Hill mine. His sisters Della and Mabel accompanied him to Medford. Clarence is an industrious boy and he will prove a capable worker in whatever position he may be placed.

A. W. Shearer, foreman of the big Oro Grande placer mines on Steve's Fork, passed through Jacksonville Tuesday on his way to the mine from Medford where he had been to spend a week with his family. Mr. Shearer stated that work was progressing satisfactory at the mine as there is a continuous water supply had from streams that are feed by the melting snows on Grayback mountain.

S. C. Swagerty who had two teams logging since spring at the Jackson County Lumber Co's. mill has finished his contract at that mill and now he has taken a contract to haul logs at W. R. Stansell's on Pleasant creek. Mr. Swagerty has sent one team to the mill in charge of Vance Wolgomot and so soon as his son Harley returns from his outing at the coast the latter will take another team of four hoses to the mill and haul logs for the remainder of this season.

John Nelson was in Thursday from the Spaulding mine on Forest creek for a load of supplies. Mr. Nelson has the farm land of the Spaulding property leased and now while the mine is shut down he is in charge of that until Mr. Spaulding's return from Tacoma where he has been for the past month. Mr. Spaulding is expected back within the next week or two when he will put a force of men at work cleaning out the ditches and reservoir and in moving messhouse which is located on mining ground that he expects to pipe off this winter.

Uncle Billy Robinson returned Monday from a three week's outing at Cinnabar Springs, and though he is nearly 77 years—but he is reticent as to years of his age least the ladies might think he is an old man and his matrimonial chances be impaired—he made the 45 mile trip in from the Springs over the trail across the Siskiyou mountain in two days, a ride that is not a pleasure jaunt to even a young man, but then Uncle Billy is one of those Oregon pioneers who as a class are noted for being able to carry on business transactions or to do a day's work or take a mountain trip quite equal to the days before time had frosted their hair a silver white.

W. H. Royse, who has the Crowell ranch and orchard leased, was in Jacksonville Thursday accompanied by D. H. Jenkins, whose wife is a niece of Mr. Royse. Mr. Jenkins with his family recently arrived from Hardman, in Morrow county and getting tired of that wind-swept, dusty country, he comes to Jackson county to locate as he was a visitor here two years ago and was so pleased with the country that he will now make it his home.

John Becker, a well known resident of Applegate, was in Jacksonville over Monday night. Mr. Becker, formerly owned a fine farm on Thompson creek, but desiring to take life easy and having ample means for his old age sold the farm and bought a small tract of land on lower Thompkins where he has built a comfortable home and is enjoying life as becomes a retired Jackson county rancher.

Miss Tillie Hooks will leave Saturday for Missouri Flat where she will begin on next Monday the fall term of school in the that district. Miss Hooks taught the spring term of school in that district and so well did she please the patrons of the school that she was engaged for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, recent arrivals from Washington and who have located on Forest creek where Mr. Bond will be employed in the Sturgis mine, were in Jacksonville Wednesday, buying furniture, stove and other household goods and supplies.
