John Nelson was in town Wednesday from Forest Creek for a load of supplies. Mr. Nelson has the farm land joining to the Spaulding mining property bonded. Mr. Spaulding is yet in Tacoma and in a recent letter to Mr. Nelson he makes no mention as to the date of his return to Forest Creek, but Mr. Nelson expects him in the near future as there is considerable work to do to get in readiness by the time the rains set in for the ditches and reservoirs need to be cleaned and the dwelling will have to be moved before much piping can be done as the ground has been cut away within a few feet of it and the yard about the house is all rich pay ground.

Geore Birdseye was in Jacksonville over Wednesday night a guest at the home of his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Colvig, while on his way to his home near Woodville from Applegate, where he had spent a week. While at the home of his uncle Fritz, on Thompson creek, he was given the pleasure of a surprise party by the young people of the neighborhood Monday evening. George spent two days at Missouri Flat hop yard and became quite an expert picker he filling the girls' baskets while they talked to him. Hop picking closed the first of this week and the yield and the quality were both up to the usual high standard for which Applegate hops are noted.

Report comes that Grants Pass is soon to have another paper which will make five for that thriving young city. The new paper is to be Democratic according to the strictest tenets of that party but of which brand, Cleveland, Bryan or Parker, has not been given out. Robert G. Smith, attorney, legislator, and all around hustler is to be editor in chief and general factotum. Mr. Smith is a ready writer and severely trenchant in his style so his paper will be spicy if it does stir up the other fellows. Mr. Smith claims that there is a deep felt want for a Democratic paper in Josephine county, the followers of Jefferson in that county being without a guide and counselor for the four papers now published in Grants Pass—no other place in the county has a paper—are of other political faiths, the Observer and Journal being Republican, the Courier, Independent and the Real Issue, Socialist.
