Scott Wilcox, the popular Southern Pacific agent at Medford, was in Jacksonville Sunday, accompanied by his daughter Mabel, for a short visit with his son Harry, who is clerking at Learned's confectionery store. Mr. Wilcox will leave next week for Missouri where he will join Mrs. Wilcox who has been East for some time visiting relatives, where they will visit the World's Fair, returning to Oregon in about three weeks.

S. S. Randles, who has been employed at the Sterling mine for the past year has resigned his position and moved with his family to a 12 acre farm on the Sterling road just out of the Jacksonville corporation. Mr. Randles has had extensive repairs made to his house making it a very desirable place of residence. He will improve his land and engage in the fruit and poultry business. For this winter he will be employed at the Opp mine where he will do the blacksmithing and repair work.

Fresh bread, daily, at W. H. Millers.

J. W. Miller, one of the leading contractors of Medford is spending the week at the encampment in Jacksonville, he being a veteran in the 20th-Indiana Infantry. Mr. Miller has several houses for rent in Medford and such is the demand that he is now erecting another house to rent. It is a seven room cottage and is located on I street near the Christian church. Mr. Miller stated that there was considerable building going on in his part of town. J. P. True is having a neat looking eight room house erected and Frank Billinger, who is the rustling carrier of the Jacksonville-Medford morning mail, is having a seven-room cottage built on lots on J. street he recently purchased of W. F. Isaacs.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sidley arrived in Jacksonville Monday from Lake Creek and remained over until Tuesday making their fall and winter purchases at Nunan-Taylor Co's store. Mr. and Mrs. Sidley have been regular customers of Mr. Nunan's for the past 14 years and at least four times a year they make the 30 mile drive from their farm to Jacksonville, sell produce and buy their supplies. Mr. Sidley is principally engaged in stock-raising and he reports cattle in good condition and the stockmen not at all downcast by the present low price of stock, which they look upon as only a temporary depression in the market. Mr. Sidley stated that the school in their district is progressing very satisfactorily under Miss Hughes a Medford teacher. Of improvements in his neighborhood he reports that Charles Hoft is putting up a well arranged and well-appearing dwelling house on his farm to replace a small, unsuitable one in which he now resides.

M. Calhoun, the Phoenix real estate dealer was in Jacksonville Tuesday on a real estate trip. Accompanying Mr. Calhoun was his son John Calhoun who is making his parents a two week's visit. Mr. John Calhoun resides near the city of Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he owns a fine dairy ranch on which he keeps an average of 60 cows. He has been dairying for the past 14 years and finds it a very profitable business. He is well pleased with the appearance of Rogue River Valley and thinks this should become a great dairying section.

J. T. Breeden, who recently leased a tract of placer land on the right fork of Forest Creek, of J. Nunan, was in Jacksonville Saturday. Breeden states that he has moved his family from Rush to the Eaton house on the Nunan property, and he is now at work getting the ditches and pipe in order for work as soon as the fall rains set in.

Mrs. A. E. Reames will leave this Friday or Saturday for Hillsboro where she will spend a month with her mother, Mrs. Thos. H. Tongue. She will also spend some time in Portland with a sister residing there and with friends.

Lucky Queen Ordered Ten-Stamp Mill. Grants Pass--Crescent City R. R.

C. D. Crain, a stockholder and superintendent of the Lucky Queen mine in Jump-off Joe district, was in town Tuesday of this week with his wife. He confirms the report that the order has been given for the ten-stamp mill ordered from Hammond Manufacturing Co., whose mills have given good satisfaction wherever used. They are now making preparations for the installing of the plant, and development work is steadily going forward. If you want to see the kind of rock the Lucky Queen has found you want to visit the Mineral exhibit rooms on upper Sixth street.—Oregon Mining Journal.

By the following the Oregon Mining Journal sees more evidence that the likelihood is increasing of the long-talked-of and much-hoped-for railroad between Grants Pass and Crescent City is to be built in the near future:

J. O. B. Gunn of the Union Iron Works, Willis E. Davis and Col. T. Wain-Morgan Draper of San Francisco, arrived here on Wednesday and on Thursday started south for Waldo. Mr. Gunn is one of the prominent stockholders in the new railroad from Grants Pass to the Coast. We believe they are now here for the purpose of taking steps to start up the work on said railroad.
