F. A. Copple was in Monday from his ranch on the Applegate where he reports everything in a flourishing condition, altho' he expresses some regret that himself and several other stockmen out there contracted their beef early in the season when prices were lower than they now are, and as a consequence, those who neglected to contract at that time are now receiving much better prices for their beef than those that were so unfortunate. However, all of them are making money on their cattle, hence they have no serious regrets.

The social ball at Orth's hall last Friday evening is reported to have been a success in every particular and was enjoyed by all. The music, which was furnished by Miller's dance orchestra, of Medford, was of the very best, and as the hall was not so badly crowded but what everybody had plenty of room to maneuver, it was an unusually pleasant occasion. The next ball will perhaps be the Thanksgiving ball to be given by the Native Daughters.

Our old friend T. J. Boyd one of the best job printers in this part of the state has accepted a position on the Grants Pass twice-a-week Herald which was but recently launched there by Hon. R. G. Smith. We will look for a wonderful improvement in the general appearance of the Herald, altho' it has not been a bad looking sheet heretofore.

Dumping Garbage.

We are reliably informed that it has recently become quite a common practice by some of the residents of our town to dump garbage in various parts of the city limits, especially in the beds of Jackson and Daisy creeks, which is in direct violation of the ordinances regarding the matter. Doubtless it has been done thoughtlessly and not with malicious intentions however that may be it should be stopped. We are requested to state that prosecution will follow further repetition of the offense.

The Youth's Companion as a Gift.

What other Christmas present can you choose that will give so much pleasure for so little money as a year's subscription for The Youth's Companion? The Holiday Numbers and the Calendar, joyously welcomed on Christmas morning, making a good gift in themselves, are but the foretaste of a whole year's feast to come. The mind is entertained with the numbers in hand, and the imagination revels in the pleasure that each week will bring until Christmas comes again.

If you desire to make a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion, send the publishers the name and address of the person to whom you wish to give The Companion, with $1.75, the annual subscription price, stating that it is to be a gift. The publishers will send to the address named, in a parcel to be opened Christmas morning, all the remaining issues for 1904, published after the subscription is received, including the Double Holiday Numbers, The Company's "Carnations" Calendar for 1905, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of 1905.

Full Illustrated Announcement, fully describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1905, will be sent to any address free.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office,
Roseburg, Oregon, Oct. 6, 1904.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An Act for the sale of Timber Lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892,

WILLIAM A. AITKEN, of Ashland, county of Jackson, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 6477, for the purchase of the north-east quarter of Section No. 10, Township 40 South of Range 3 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Monday, the 9th day of January, 1905.

He names as witnesses: Frank E. Kincart of Oakland Oregon, Harry W. Miller of Myrtle Creek Oregon; Max W. Luckenbach of Medford Oregon and John H. Aitken of Ashland Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 9th day of January, 1905.
