Every man in every town, says an exchange, during the course of a life time has to ask a favor of an editor—not an exception to this rule. A man may escape a doctor keep clear of the courts, but once in a life time, at least, every man has to go to a newspaper to ask to have a certain piece put in—a death notice, a marriage notice, etc., to have a certain piece kept out—or to have his name printed in, or omitted from some petition or item. It is therefore to your interest to treat the editor fairly. He desires to be fair; he would rather do the right than the wrong thing; but if you give him a kick, the dent of it may be found in the top of your own hat some day—and you will never know how it got there. Don't think that providence has especially favored you. Your time will come, and when it does come, it will be a fine investment to have a friend in the editor's office.

Laying Heavy Rails.

Rapid progress is being made by the Southern Pacific company in laying new 80-pound steel on its road bed in the Cow creek canyon says the Grants Pass Herald. The new rails are now being laid from Merlin to Grants Pass. Within a stretch of eighteen miles between the two places, five extra gangs of men have been at work for some time past. The light rails are being replaced with the heavier ones in preparation for the use of a more powerful type of engines than those now plying between Ashland and Roseburg.

To Put Out Large Orchard.

Merchant L. B. Brown, who, a few weeks ago, purchased the Maule tract of land, lying east of Medford, and comprising 156 acres, has decided to put seventy-six acres of it into orchard and has ordered trees for planting the same. He will put out fifty acres of pears of the Buerre Bose, Commice, Winter Nellis and Bartlett varieties, and twenty-six acres of apples—ten acres Newtown, ten acres of Spitzenburgs and six acres Jonathons.—Grants Pass Herald.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS

Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to hustle is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 4 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can earn any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $6 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

as extra prizes, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. Lewis and Clark Centennial.

International scope is assured to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, from June 1st to October 15, 1905, by President Roosevelt's approval of the act of Congress making an appropriation for the Exposition, and his invitation to foreign countries to participate Portland's Exposition will represent a total outlay of over $5,000,000. Though covering 405 acres of land and natural lake, it will be compact in form, and the average person will be able to see and comprehend it all in a few days at moderate cost. The cream of the foreign and domestic exhibits to be made at St. Louis this year will be transferred to Portland at the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The United States exhibit will be moved entire to Portland and installed in building to be specially erected. This exhibit will be worth $800,000. In addition Portland will have many features which will not be seen at St. Louis, such as exhibit demonstrating the life, customs and industries of China, Japan, Hawaii, Siberia, Russia, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and India.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial will be the first international exposition under Government patronage ever held on the Pacific Coast. It will be in every way a Western exposition. The railroads will make low rates from Missouri and Mississippi river points to Portland, and exceptionally low rates will be in effect between Portland and the Rocky Mountain region.
