New Real Estate Firm.

A new firm opened up its office in the McCully building on Fifth and California street yesterday and will be known as Daily & Elmer, dealers in real estate. The members of the firm are P. H. Daily the present county superintendent of Jackson county and E. F. Elmer, a young man of sterling integrity and considerable business ability who has resided here with his parents for a number of years. Both of these young men are hustlers and believe that there is a splendid opening here for an office of this kind, and that, with the proper amount of hustling, they can soon get into a good, paying business. They expect to write insurance, make collections handle mining properties, etc. etc. Together with their many friends here the Sentinel wishes the new firm abundant success in this field.

Sends Flowers to Weber.

It seems that among the multitudes of bright, sensible girls in Ashland there is at least one who is afflicted with that maudlin sentimentality which prompts the sending of flowers and billet doux to criminals. Among the packages put on the express car at this depot, Saturday, was one addressed to Adolph Weber, at Auburn, Cal., the young man who is charged with murdering his father, mother and infant brother, and then burning the family home to destroy evidence of the crimes. The package became unwrapped for some reason, when its contents were exposed to view. A bouquet of flowers, a photograph of the girl sending the package, and a letter comprised its contents. The sender asked that a reply might be sent addressed to "Weber," care of the true name of the young lady. The articles were re-wrapped and sent on to their destination. —Ashland Tidings.

An Alluring Contract.

The Redding papers print the form of the contract used by Harry W. Miller, the timber land operator who must now answer to the federal authorities in two states for alleged illegal timber land operations, in his dealings with Shasta county people. It is as follows:

"Office of the Washington Mill & Lumber Company; D. C. McWhittier, president; H. W. Miller agent.
"We, the Washington Mill and Lumber Company, desiring to acquire timber and stone land in Northern California, and .....wishing to exhaust his rights under the timber and stone act: Now, therefore, we agree with said.....
.....to take the said claim at the time of final proof at $8.00 (Eight Dollars) per, acre, said.....to locate the quarter section....., Township..... Range....., and we will advance said .....$500.00 (Five Hundred Dollars) and upon the assignment of said claim to us we will pay the said.....
.....the remainder of said money. This agreement to be signed by said.....
.....and countersigned by the company's agent and deposited in escrow until the day of transfer.

"In witness whereof we hereunto set our hands and seals this, the.....day of .....190...

Death Forstalls Court.

The trial of murderer Shoemaker, which was to have been commenced in the next term of court, has been unexpectedly set aside by the grim reaper. As stated in our last issue, the aged criminal had been very ill during his confinement in the county jail, and last Saturday evening, he was taken suddenly worse and at 9:30 died. His condition was noticed at once by his companions in confinement but as they had no means of summoning aid from outside, the old man passed away without medical attendance. The body was turned over to the undertaker and his relatives notified of his death, but no one claimed the body and it was accordingly buried at the expense of the county. In view of the prospect of a long and extensive trial with the plea of insanity as a ground for contention, the sudden death may be considered fortunate.—Mining Journal.
