Brief, Breezy Notes Regarding the Various Events That Take Place at and Near the County Seat, By This the Only Paper.

NEWS WHILE IT IS YET NEWSY

The Sentinel gives the mining news.

Jewelry at wholesale prices at City Drug Store.

Theo. Cameron made a business trip to Medford Thursday.

Judge Neil transacted legal business in Medford last Thursday.

Miss Lota Fleury was in from the Oregon Belle mine Wednesday.

Remember that the Sentinel is the biggest paper of its size in Oregon.

Clyde Shaw, who is employed out at the Oregon Belle mine, was in Sunday.

Mrs. Gus Newbury and Miss Pauline Reuter returned from Portland Thursday.

Mrs. Gus Newbury and Pauline Reuter left last Thursday for a visit at points north.

Atty. C. L. Reames left Monday evening for Gold Hill and other points north on legal business.

Mrs. Helen Gale arrived in Jacksonville last Thursday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Colvig.

Frank R. Neil and daughter, who have been visiting his father Judge Neil and wife at this place, left last Friday for his home in Sacremento.

I. A. Collins, or "Colly" as he was familiarly know by the boys, left last week for his home in California. Colly was one of the heavyweights in "Neuber's Gold Bricks."

Mr. Furness, who is soon to put in a fine line of gent's furnishings in the building now ocupied by C. W.Conklin, made a flyine trip to Grants Pass the first of the week returning Tuesday.

County Clerk Orth has received notice from Supt. Calbreath of the Oregon Insane Asylum that Whitfield L. May, committed to that institution from Jackson county Oct. 20, 1904, was discharged as cured Nov. 21st.

Ben Thurston of Applegate, the miner, has been at the county seat several times lately. He has discovered that his mine has been included in a timber claim on which proof was made some time ago, and his business was in connection therewith.

Mr. Jno. Marsh recently handed us a sample potato that he received from N. Langell, of Klamath Falls and was grown in that locality that is certainly a beauty It weighs 4½ lbs. and is well formed and symmetrical. Whether it was grown under irrigation or not he did not know but it is certainly a fine specimen.

Little Chester Wendt was the victim of quite a serious accident last Sunday that resulted in his receiving a scalp wound which required the attention of a physician. With his brother he was taking a horseback ride, when a sudden turn of the animal threw them both off with the above result. He is reported to be getting along nicely now.

Rev. A. J. Armstrong was in town Monday having driven over from Phoenix where he is conducting a series of revival meetings. Last Sunday a class was organized with a membership of 25, which will probably be increased before the meetings are concluded. This speaks well for the ability of both Rev. Armstrong and Rev. Blackwell, who have the meetings in charge.

T. J. Kenney and Geo. E. Neuber returned last week from the Blue Ledge mine bringing with them some of the finest specimens of coppor ore ever seen in this section of the state and which have attracted considerable attention from mining men that have seen them.

Visits Old Home.

Samuel R. Taylor returned home last Friday, after a two month's visit at his old home at Princeton Indiana which he had not visited since he first came to Southern Oregon over 50 years ago. Mr. Taylor reports a most pleasant visit to his boyhood home but says the changes in the country since he left there have been many and wonderful. He brought home a box of persimmons and a sack of hickory nuts which the writer was permitted to sample and was a reminder of things "back east". However the weather was quite nice there during Mr. Taylor's stay and after fifty years of Southern Oregon, he certainly would have noticed it very much had it been otherwise.

COUGHING SPELL CAUSED DEATH.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by City Drug Store.
