Brief, Breezy Notes Regarding the Various Events That Take Place at and Near the County Seat, By This the Only Paper.

NEWS WHILE IT IS YET NEWSY

New line of toys at the Boss.
Toys of all kinds at Lester & Shulz's.
All descriptions of mechanical toys at Lester & Shulz's.
Lon Wimer, of Talent, was here Thursday a witness in the "tin can" case.
Call on Lester and Schulz and examine their nice line of Christmas goods.
Frank H. Hull, the photographer took several views of the new Opp mill yesterday.
Mr. Bellinger, one of Medford's hustling real estate dealers, was in town Wednesday.
Agent Wilcox, of the Southern Pacific, was up from Medford Wednesday and made this office a pleasant call.
Judge L. R. Webster, formerly circuit judge here, but now of Portland, is here this week as attorney in the famous "tin can" case.

Our town is certainly lively this week and presents a haulting and thrifty appearance, largely due to attendance at the Circuit Court now in session.

Born to the wife of Louis Eaton, who resides a few miles south of Jacksonville on Wednesday Dec. 14, a baby girl. Mother and daughter doing nicely.

Some people have an idea in their head that Frank H. Hull, the Art Studio man, is in partnership with G. W. Mackey, at Medford but Frank says such is not the case, he is in partnership with no one.

Joe Morcom and family arrived here Tuesday from Grants Pass where he has been employed in the Greenback mine. He will be an employee at the new Opp quartz mill which is now ready to start up.

F. W. Broback, who formerly resided at Medford, is in town this week as a witness in the "tin can" case that is attracting so much attention. He built the hen house over the spot where the boys dug up the can containing the $7,000 in gold coin.

F. E. Willett, who has just completed the big quartz mill near town, left yesterday for his home at Grants Pass where he will remain for a time at least, and take a much needed rest. He has been steadily at work for a long time having taken this job immediately after finishing the big Granite Hill mill near Grants Pass, which was fully as large a job as the one just finished. Mr. Willett is certainly a first class mill man and understands his business from A to Z besides having a happy faculty of getting along smoothly with his men. He made many friends during his stay in Jacksonville.

Woodville Whispers.

Mrs. Hair of Grants Pass came up last Thursday to visit for several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hair.

Wm. Shoemake and brother Edward, formerly of this vicinity have located a homestead on upper Birdseye creek.

Geo. Estell, the accomodating clerk in W. V. Jones' store, who has been quite sick for a few days is around again.

Mr. L. Stone and family passed through town the other day on their way home at Bybee Springs from Jacksonville.

Xmas services will be held by Rev. Robt. Tweed on Christmas morning at the Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock.

Lorn Adams and Chas Brown are still working at the P. H. Harth mine on Schiefflein gulch, doing considerable development work.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Gale and Mrs. C. L. Reames drove down last Friday from Jacksonville and spent a few hours with relatives on the Birdseye farm.

Elmer Carter familiarly known as "Todd" is home from the army. He has been in the Philippines and numerous other parts during the past three years and has been raised in rank since joining the 2nd Oregon volunteers.

The question of having a bridge across Rogue river just opposite town is again revived and much discussed. The need of such a structure is and has been for many years a great drawback for Woodville and the whole vicinity which lies much of it, within sight of town. To reach town from the opposite side of the river only a few rods from the depot one must, if going with a vehicle of any sort go around by Rock Point which makes a trip of over 24 miles. With a little effort on the part of a number of the citizens we believe that the county would furnish us with this much needed bridge.

THE JOURNAL

OREGON JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS

Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to rustle is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 8 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can earn any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $3 to $5 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

As extra prizes, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession: THE JOURNAL is a winner!

"I was much affected with sciatica," writes Ed C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by City Drug Store.

Essie Wilson and James Cauntrall passed through town Thursday enroute to the Little Applegate country where they will assist in some road work that is being done near the Crump place.
