The way to build up your home town is to work for it, talk for it and patronize those in business there

Our readers are asked to overlook the shortcomings of the Sentinel this week, as Christmas comes but once a year and this led to the editor being away from the office from last Thursday until this Wednesday. We have been working shorthanded and yet we succeeded in getting this paper out in only three days which "isn't so slow."

Local Briefs

Fine job work at the Sentinel Office.

The Fischer Co. is drawing quite good crowds at Medford this week.

Ed. Day returned home today for a visit with his parents Judge Day and wife.

Mrs. Rose Hamlin the dancing teacher who was here some time ago, has returned from Grants Pass and is now in Medford.

W. T. Campbell who has been employed at the Blue Ledge Copper mine for some time, was in town a few days this week, returning today.

Hickel, the Jacksonville jeweler, has some fine Waltham and Elgin watches, warranted for 20 years, and full gold cases that he will sell at a close margin of profit.

Mrs. C. M. Hendrix, who has been a resident of Medford for the past several months, died at the residence of T. W. Ling, in East Medford, on Friday morning, aged 67 years. Mrs. Hendrix was the eldest sister of jeweler B. N. Butler. The remains were shipped to Harrisburg, Oregon, for interment.—Medford Mail.

Recent Weddings.

Mr. A. M. Schaeffer and Miss Olive Cummins, of Medford, were married at the U. S. hotel parlors, in this city, on Wednesday afternoon of this week by Justice Dox. The contracting parties are both well and favorably known at Medford where they will continue to reside. We congratulate.

Mr. Herman King and Miss Mary Margreiter, both popular and well-known young people of this place, celebrated Christmas day by joining their fortunes "for better or for worse." They joined the excursion party to San Francisco on Monday and expect to be gone ten or fifteen days enjoying their honeymoon in California.

Mr. Vance Wolgamott and Miss Emma Oglesby were united in marriage last week. The groom is a most deserving young timberman of Talent and the bride is one of the popular young ladies of North Jacksonville. The young couple will make their home out near the Jackson County Lumber Co.'s mill where Mr. Wolgamott is employed for the winter.

Ben Clute, the efficient foreman of the New York mine, located in Siskiyou county, Calif. (now being operated by J. B. Scott and his associates), an excellent young man, and Miss Lydia Pernoll, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mrs. William Pernoll of Applegate, were married Christmas. They will make their future home in Siskiyou county, Calif. for which place they departed Tuesday night. That their journey on matrimonial seas will be fraught with happiness and prosperity is the wish of all.—Times.

Takes a Shot.

Wednesday evening as the Rogue River Valley train was leaving the city of Medford on their return trip and yet in the suburbs of that place, somebody took a shot at the passenger coach which was loaded with people enroute to the county seat. The bullet, if such it was, came in at the lower corner of one window just in front of a man and his wife who occupied that seat, and went through and out at the opposite window, doing no damage except the breaking of the glass in the windows. Some of the passengers express it as their opinion that it was only a buck-shot from a sling shot in the hands of some mischievous boy, while others are of a different opinion and declare that they distinctly heard the crack of the rifle.
