Fine job work at the Sentinel Office.

Jewelry at wholesale prices at City Drug Store.

Royal Brown was over from Eagle Point yesterday.

Grant Rawlings, of Gold Ray, visited the county seat Monday.

Remember that the Sentinel is the biggest paper of its size in Oregon.

A. E. Reames and wife made a trip to Waldo this week returning today.

Mrs. Dr. Gale returned Thursday to her home at North Bend, Coos County.

Dr. C. R. Ray was transacting business in Jacksonville last Friday and Saturday.

C. W. Geddes, Mr. Jeldess and W. E. Thompson came in from the copper camp Tuesday.

H. Huffman, who has been seriously ill for the past few days is reported to be improving.

The editor has been a widower since Christmas but is expecting his better half home Saturday.

S. M. Wertz, who formerly resided at Ruch, but who is now on Williams creek was a pleasant caller Monday.

When you want a pleasant laxative take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by City Drug Store.

A little excitement on our streets New Year's day proved a most inappropriate manner of ushering in the new year.

Mike Sidley is now our city marshal, John Renault having handed in his resignation at the recent meeting of the town board.

Hickel, the Jacksonville jeweler, has some fine Waltham and Elgin watches, warranted for 20 years, and full gold cases that he will sell at a close margin of profit.

Mrs. Hugh Elliott and daughter Mable are here from Portland visiting friends. They were former residents of Jacksonville, having moved away about six years ago.

Dr. Bowersox was called over to Missouri Flat Wednesday to see Grandma Basye who is still very ill but getting along as nicely as could be expected for one of her advanced age.

Henry Callahan, a Spokane mining man who is interested in the Blue Ledge district and who was here last week, left Monday for Goldfields, Nevada, where he expects to remain some time.

Adolph Schulz, who has been laid up for several weeks with the rheumatism, was on our streets Tuesday for the first time, with the assistance of crutches which he hopes to be able to discard within a few days.

Friends of E. L. Jones, who is now in the new mining camp of Goldfields, Nevada, received a letter from him recently in which he states that everything is lovely there. Little sickness, nice weather and everything on the boom.

This week is being observed at the M. E. church as a week of prayer and meetings are being held every evening. Rev. A. J. Armstrong, the pastor, is giving talks on the topics suggested by the Evangelical Alliance, which are very instructive, and interesting. The meeting will continue the balance of the week.

F. T. Mills, who was arrested at Medford a week or two ago, accused of implication in a robbery of a Klamath county man in a questionable joint there was released today on $1000 bonds.

R. R. Dunn, of San Francisco, a brother-in-law of editor Chas. Nickel arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with friends and relatives.

The weather seems to have decided to "quit its meanness" and is now bright and fair, more like spring than winter.

Watches of the best standard makes for sale now at almost cost. Inquire of J. W. Hickel.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS

Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to route is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 5 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $6 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

as extra prizes, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession! THE JOURNAL is a winner!
