CENTENNIAL NOTES.

Persia's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be worth $200,000.

Vermont's building at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be a reproduction of the old Constitution House of 1777.

Great Britain will occuy 3,600 square feet of exhibit space at the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

Hungary will have an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial worth $30,000. The exhibit will occupy 2,000 square feet of space.

Costa Rica will make a fine display of coffee, hemp, cocoa and other products at the Western World's Fair. The display is valued at $20,000.

An attraction for women at the Lewis and Clark Exposition will be the display of the latest frocks from Paris in the French section of the Manufactures Building.

Egypt and Morocco will make a combined African display at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. The exhibit will cover 2,500 square feet and its value will be $225,000.

The hatching of chickens will be shown to the general public at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. All exhibitors of incubators will be required to make their display, operative, and at stated hours the crowds will be invited to come and see the chickens break their shells.

The piling and flooring work on the Trail and Bridge of Nations at the Lewis and Clark Centennial is now completed and the Government Peninsula can now be reached by this route. The bridge spans 2,000 feet of water and is the largest bridge ever erected at an Exposition.

The art display at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be of fabulous value, representing more money than will be expended in building the Exposition. There will be a few paintings worth at least $100,000 each, and the aggregate value of the display will be millions of dollars.

Running Down a Lie.

Goldfields, Nev., Jan. 10.—M. M. Detch, a leading attorney of this mining camp, has offered $100 reward for information for the man who sent out the recent reports that epidemics prevailed in the district, and that there was much lawlessness. It is the purpose of the attorney, who acts for a number of Goldfield citizens, to prosecute the author of the reports, which they allege are false and libelous against the town. The statement is issued that there is no such condition of epidemic as has been reported, and that Goldfield is an orderly mining camp.

To Show Indian Work.

The Indian exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be a large and extensive one, in many respects superior to those held at earlier world's fairs. Superintendent Edwin L. Chalcraft of the Chemawa, Ore., Indian school has been appointed to take charge of the exhibit, and the work of collecting the display is well advanced.

The exhibit will show the progress of the Indian people during the past century, and displays will be made illustrating the life of the Indians at the time of the Lewis and Clark Expedition and the present condition of the Red man. The exhibit will be given an Indian setting, an abundance of Native grasses, Navajo rugs and blankets, Indian pottery and basket work being used for this purpose. Schoolroom papers, articles manufactured by the Indians, specimens of crops, and photographs of schools are being collected. The finest collection of Indian baskets ever displayed will be a feature of the exhibit. The Chemawa Indian students are at work making a miniature wagon, which will be shown at the Fair. While the display will show in a representative way the work of Indians in every part of the country where the native Red man still lives, special attention will be given to the work of the Indians of the Pacific Northwest.

CURED LUMBAGO.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers."
