THE DAY OF RECKONING.

"The signs indicate a troublous time for various species of big thieves at last" says the Tacoma Ledger, and adds: "It is best to use this plain word, for they are men who to gain great wealth have persistently and audaciously violated and defied laws, while posing as being models and leaders in the country's business life. We allude to those who have made and are making enormous profits out of the common people, the producers and consumers, either by violations of laws and by corruption, procuring vicious class legislation, unfaithful administration, or unjust adjudication. They are not as guilty as the corrupted or basely influenced legislators, executive officers and judges who have been their tools, but they deserve no softer name than thieves nevertheless.

"Just now especial attention it attracted to the land thieves. The Puters and McKinleys were only small if shrewd tools. Behind them was a more or less corrupt or at best a contemptibly hoodwinked government, infested with a lot of unprincipled or incompetent politicians. But behind all these were the big beneficiaries, the men who with the aid of these official and private agents and tools possessed themselves of millions upon millions of acres of the choicest timber lands of the country left—most of them, in fact—at perhaps an average of one-tenth their present value.

"That these great timber land owners did business on a large scale, and spent a great deal of money to acquire these immensely valuable lands, does not change the nature of the transaction, for in almost every case the spirit and even the letter of the law were violated. The lands were the government's, the people's; by trickery, frauds and perjury it passed into possession of the big syndicates. Thus the people have been robbed of tens of millions. Why, then, should we not call these men robbers as well as the men who take small amounts of property from rightful owners by force?

"The rich man who robs by chicanery is more dangerous and deserving of punishments than the poor man who robs by the strong arm method. He injures more people, and he corrupts men to serve the people, so that they know not on whom to depend.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

MONEY FOR BOYS

Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY AND SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to rattle is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 8 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $8 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

as extra prize, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession: THE JOURNAL is a winner!

Address, THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.
