Geo. B Ross has posted a notice that he will apply for a license to retail liquor for a year after Jan. 25th says the Central Point correspondent of the Southern Oregonian. Some of the members of the city council have been advised that they cannot hold a meeting for that purpose, and that where the citizens of a town vote against allowing liquor to be sold within its limits a license cannot be legally granted.

On Wednesday evening of last week Jerome & Lamont's vaudeville show gave a performance at Eagle Point which, according to a correspondent from that lively little place, was not very satisfactory to its patrons most of whom seemed to think their supply of stale and silly jokes too indecent to enjoy. And to cap the climax, during the performance some miscreant broke into Hickathorn's confectionery store and robbed his slot machine of all "the root of all evil" that was in sight.

Fred Morrison of Medford, a painter, was arrested by Constable Howard Wednesday, charged by his wife with threatening to kill her. He was brought before Justice Stewart, who placed him under bonds in the sum of $500, in default of which he was taken to the county jail where he will languish until the April term of court.—Oregonian.

The Youth's Companion as a Gift.

What other Christmas present can you choose that will give so much pleasure for so little money as a year's subscription for The Youth's Companion? The Holiday Numbers and the Calendar, joyously welcomed on Christmas morning, making a good gift in themselves, are but the foretaste of a whole year's feast to come. The mind is entertained with the numbers in hand, and the imagination revels in the pleasure that each week will bring until Christmas comes again.

If you desire to make a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion, send the publishers the name and address of the person to whom you wish to give The Companion, with $1.75, the annual subscription price, stating that it is to be a gift. The publishers will send to the address named, in a parcel to be opened Christmas morning, all the remaining issues for 1904, published after the subscription is received, including the Double Holiday Numbers, The Company's "Carnations" Calendar for 1905, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of 1905.

Full Illustrated Announcement, fully describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1905, will be sent to any address free.

NUNAN TAYLOR CO.

FRAUD EXPOSED.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. For sale at City Drug Store.

Call and Settle.

Those knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are requested to call at once and pay up.

CHRIS ULRICH.

At Newport, on Yaquina bay, the famous Oregon summer seaside resort that is destined to equal the great Newport resort on the Atlantic coast, a 13 room hotel, one block from the main business section, fully furnished with good bedding, carpets, furniture, and kitchen fixtures, and the woodroom full of wood, is offered for sale at a bargain for cash, or will trade for land in Rogue River Valley. Title perfect, house in good repair and supplied with hot and cold water on over and upper floors, bath room, wood room, closets and all conveniences of a modern boarding house. The house is paying property and is only offered for sale by reason of the owner's wife having asthma and not able to live in a low altitude. Full particulars by addressing the Sentinel office.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by City Drug Store.
