A correspondent from New Hope says that the grouse are hooting says the Rogue River Courier. This is another instance of the unusual forwardness of the spring for this bird does not lift his voice in base solo until he is convinced that winter is over. He is evidently unaware that the ground hog "seen his shadder" on ground hog day. However, the recent frosty mornings may cause the grouse to hush his song in doubt of its propriety.

Dr. J. S. McFadden, a well known resident of the Applegate country where he had lived for nearly thirty years, died at his home Sunday, the 5th of this month. He was a native of Ohio, and came to Oregon in 1872. In 1880 he was married to Miss Kate Kubli, who with the following children survive: Jas. J. CROUP

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold, there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat.

Mrs. A. Vliet New Castle, Colo., writes March 19, 1902: I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy, and so pleasant to take. Sold by City Drug Store.

FRAUD EXPOSED.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. For sale at City Drug Store.

Fine job work at the Sentinel Office.

AFRAID OF STRONG MEDICINES.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. For sale by City Drug Store.
