WHATEVER HAPPENED IS HERE

From An Old Timer.

An old-time Jacksonville friend of G. W. Holt, a former resident of this place but now living at French Camp, California, received a letter recently from the old man in which he inquires about many of the old-timers here and about the town and states that he is living at French Camp, San Joaquin county California and is getting along nicely in his declining years. Mr. Holt was a resident of this place in its "palmy days" and built many of the substantial brick blocks that yet stand firm and true after years of service, on the main streets of our little city. He has not been here nor heard much of the place for many years but now that he is "on the western side of the hill" his mind returns to Jacksonville and the old bustling, gold-digging days and he wonders how the old town and the friends he once knew, are getting along.

Favor County Exhibit.

Last Saturday a mass meeting was held at Medford for the purpose of taking steps to have Jackson county represented at the Lewis and Clark fair by a splendid exhibit of her resources and products. I. L. Hamilton was elected chairman of the meeting and H. Withington secretary. The matter was brought before the meeting by Commissioner Geo. Brown and was quite thoroughly discussed by many present. The following resolutions were then offered and almost unanimously adopted, thus showing the spirit of the meeting:

Whereas, it is important that the resources of Jackson County should be brought to the notice of the public, and particularly of intending investors, by a suitable exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair to be held in Portland during the ensuing summer, and whereas the benefit to be derived from such an exhibit would be shared proportionately by all the property owners of the county and the expenses should be borne in like proportion: therefore be it RESOLVED that it is the sense of this meeting that the County Court of Jackson county appropriate the sum of three thousand dollars, to be expended in installing and maintaining such a display, said display to be under the control of said County Court and said appropriation to be expended under the direction of said Court.

What the World Wants.

- Men who cannot be bought.
- Men whose word is their bond.
- Men who see the divine in the common.
- Men who will not lose their individuality in a crowd.
- Men who will be as honest in small things as in great things.
- Men who do not think anything profitable that is dishonest.
- Men who are not larger than their business, who overtop their vocation.
- Men who are not afraid to take chance, who are not afraid of failure.
- Philanthropists who will not let their right hand know what their left hand is doing.
- Men who will not have one brand of honesty for business purposes and another for private life.

Magnanimous souls who do not look upon everybody they meet for the possible use they may be to them.

Clergyman who can hear a louder call than that of public applause, larger salary, or a fashionable church.

Single-hearted people who do not look at every proposition from the point of view of "What is there in it for me?"

Young men and women who can stand erect and independent while others bow and fawn and cringe for place and power.

Lawyers who will not persuade clients to bring suits merely to squeeze fees out of them, when they know very well that they have no chance of winning.

Men who have the courage to do their duty in silence and obscurity while others about them win wealth and notoriety by neglecting sacred obligations.

Men who have the courage to wear threadbare clothes, and to live simply and plainly, if necessary, while their competitors revel in luxury purchased by crooked methods.—Success

ITCH—RINGWORM.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief having tried all remedies I could hear of besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by City Drug Store.

MISS KATHERINE CHAPMAN.

Lewis and Clark Centennial.

International scope is assured to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, from June 1st to October 15, 1905, by President Roosevelt's approval of the act of Congress making an appropriation for the Exposition, and his invitation to foreign countries to participate Portland's Exposition will represent a total outlay of over $5,000,000. Though covering 405 acres of land and natural lake, it will be compact in form, and the average person will be able to see and comprehend it all in a few days at moderate cost. The cream of the foreign and domestic exhibits to be made at St. Louis this year will be transferred to Portland at the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The United States exhibit will be moved entire to Portland and installed in building to be specially erected. This exhibit will be worth $800,000. In addition Portland will have many features which will not be seen at St. Louis, such as exhibit demonstrating the life, customs and industries of China, Japan, Hawaii, Siberia, Russia, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and India.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial will be the first international exposition under Government patronage ever held on the Pacific Coast. It will be in every way a Western exposition. The railroads will make low rates from Missouri and Mississippi river points to Portland, and exceptionally low rates will be in effect between Portland and the Rocky Mountain region.
