CLIPPING TERMS.

TRIAL SUBSCRIPTIONS—The Jacksonville Sentinel will be sent to any address, at any postoffice in the United States, for four weeks for 10 cents. All subscriptions, regular or trial, will be promptly stopped at the date of expiration, unless a renewal is received.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1905.

This is the time of the year for spring cleaning of door-yards, barn-yards, lawns, streets, alleys, etc. too numerous to mention and much of it is being done among our most enterprising people. Let the good work go on until every yard, alley and street in our little city is presentable for public inspection.

All those interested in the good roads movement in Southern Oregon should attend the good roads convention which will be held at Grants Pass on the 21st and 22nd of this month and to which all are cordially invited. Governor Chamberlain, Professor Withcomb of the state Agricultural College, Professors Campbell and Hyde of the State University and many other prominent men are expected to be present and no doubt it will prove to be one of the most instructive meetings ever held in this portion of the state. Don't miss this meeting if you can possibly spare the time to attend and you can surely do that.

Colonists are coming into the Pacific Northwest by the trainload says the Oregonian. Not all of them will tarry with us for the world contains many dissatisfied beings who never find anything they are looking for except an alleged excuse for "knocking." But to the rustler with a small or a large amount of capital there are opportunities in the Northwest that will appeal powerfully, and, out of the thousands now coming westward on an investigation tour, it is a certainty that many hundreds will find great opportunities for investment of capital and labor. Just at present there is a surplus population of jawsmiths who create nothing but trouble, but for honest workmen asking no special privileges and willing to do a day's work for a day's pay, both Oregon and Washington have much to offer.

MONEY FOR BOYS

Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to rustle is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 8 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.

JOURNAL boys are making as much as $3 to $5 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?

$25 IN CASH

as extra prizes, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession: THE JOURNAL is a winner!

Address, THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.
