Newspaper Law of Oregon.—Section 2882 of the laws of Oregon provides that whenever any person controlling a newspaper shall mail such newspaper to any person in this State without first receiving an order therefor, such newspaper shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person, whether said newspaper is received by the person to whom it is sent or not.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1908.

That the corrupt practices bill to be submitted to a popular vote of the people under the initiative and referendum, is in direct conflict with that section of the Constitution which guarantees freedom of speech is believed by many who have read the measure. The bill makes it a crime for any person to ask, solicit or in any manner try to induce or persuade a voter on election day to vote for or against any candidate or measure. This would bar the use of any kind of argument on election day and there is doubt whether it would be constitutional.

The Washington Post editorially criticizes the Oregon initiative and referendum law, saying: "In Oregon with the initiative in full blast cranks flourish like a Green Bay Tree. They are joined by cunning and unscrupulous manipulators who endeavor by indirection and concealment to secure legislation that could not stand an hour of honest public discussion. And this hodge-podge of freakish and crooked legislation proposed by undesirable classes is placed before voters for their offhand decision. The initiative and referendum, one of Mr. Bryan's pet policies, is an iridescent humbug."

Senator Borah, of Idaho, has introduced a bill absolutely repealing the timber and stone law. He offers no alternative method of disposing of public timber, but in conference with Secretary Garfield and in drafting a bill which will provide practicable means of disposing of Government timber on a fair basis and shut off all possibility of false entry and at the same time stipulate that moneys derived from Government timber shall, as now go into the Reclamation fund.

Thomas J. Cleeton, of Portland, a close friend of Senator Fulton, is slated for United States District Attorney for Oregon. Senators Fulton and Bourne and Congressman Ellis united in recommending him; the recommendation was placed in the Presidents hands, and it is expected that Mr. Cleeton's nomination will be sent to the Senate at once.

In spite of winter weather, work on the E. H. Harriman residence two miles east of Arden, N. Y., is being kept up. A large force of men is engaged on the work. The monthly payroll reaches $19,000. The house is built in the style of an old English castle. Its total cost, it is said, will approximate $4,000,000.

Representative Bartlett has vigorously denied the published statement that he kissed Congressman Burleson, of Texas, on the brow last district day. "I tried tokiss him but he dodged," said Mr. Bartlett.

Representatives Jones and Humphrey appeared before the naval committee and urged that an appropriation be made for the construction of torpedo boats and submarines for the defense of Puget Sound and Gray's Harbor.

To be up with the times one must be within the political ring. The fellows who have not entered are losing ground.
