"If President Roosevelt would consent to run again he would break the 'solid south' beyond the shadow of a doubt," is a statement often seen in the papers credited to men in different sections of the country.

Great interest was aroused in financial and political circles by the declaration of Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, that he favors the physical valuation of corporations and their investigation and control by the federal government.

The button makers have started to work on Taft and Hughes, Bryan and Johnson, and in a very short time the market will be flooded with the faces of prominent candidates.

It is quite time that a new style in wills should appear. The old style has been to make wills as full of holes as a sieve for the lawyers to fight about.

We believe that the patriotic slogan of the whole people of this nation should be "Every child in a garden, every mother in a homeroad and individual industrial independence for every worker in a home of his own on the land."
