The Colonel's Birthday

A few of Col. Wilkin's best of friends called on him last evening about 8:30, the occasion being his birthday. It was somewhat of a surprise, as the Colonel had forgotten that he was growing older. He refused to say just how old he was, but it is up in the 70's.

Whist was the game and was played until all were beaten except the Colonel himself, who is a veteran at the game. After lunch the guests went their several ways wondering who had had the best time they or the Colonel.

To the Public

For your information will say that the first 100,000 shares of stock in the Klamath Oil Company will be sold for 5 cents per share. All of the funds are to go for machinery and to be used in drilling wells. The company owns 1500 acres of land and have a lease with privilege of purchase of 1500 acres more.

Members of the company have invested $100 each in the proposition. If you do not feel that you can afford that much, invest what you can. If we find oil here, it means millions to our county. If we fail to find it, we have invested in a good cause.
