

WHAT WILL BE RESULT

Factors Already Speculating on Probable Verdict of Petersteiner Jury

That the Petersteiner case is temporarily delayed, those who have been present at the trials, are waiting as to the outcome. It seems to be the quite general expression on the streets that the jury will disagree. We believe there will be a conviction, the majority seem to think that the state can expect in a hung jury. Some the close friends of the defendant claim an acquittal, but the feeling at one of the two men committed crime, and the evidence is stronger against Petersteiner than it was against the other.

COURT ISSUES INJUNCTION

Judge Benson yesterday issued a temporary injunction restraining the sheriff from selling for taxes the property of the California & Oregon Land Company, which was advertised to take place today in the sheriff tax sale. The injunction will be in force pending a final hearing.

Jacobs Continues Business

Jacobs, of the Boston Store, returned last evening from San Francisco. Jacobs states that as he was unable to dispose of his entire stock of goods, he decided to continue in business, and to-day he purchased a $40,000 stock of clothing, dry goods and shoes. The stock has already arrived and the sale of the goods are expected in a short time.

Mr. Griffith, the hotel man of Odessa, returned last evening on a short business trip.

PLEA FOR THE UNIVERSITY

Voters are Urged to Vote for Appropriation for State School This Election

There is one question to be voted on at the June election that is of greater importance than any political office. That is the referred bill supporting the State University.

The citizens of the state of Oregon can afford to maintain their own university, and should have too much independence to beg from Rockefeller and Carnegie funds to educate their children and bring them up to believe in the natural and divine right of financial kings.

How are we to expect citizens of Iowa and Kansas, who spend four to six hundred thousand dollars per year on state universities to come into a state where a fraction of that sum is reluctantly given. Sixty per cent of the students in Oregon high schools today have entered the state within the last five years. We want more of that kind of people.

The proposed appropriation will cost the people of this state less than twenty five cents each. The tax will be but twenty five cents per $1000 on the tax roll. Would you begrudge this small amount to educate your or your neighbors children.

Despotism and anarchy prevails where ignorance reigns while liberty follows enlightenment and education. There has never nor will be a dollar too much spent for education.

If you want the bill to pass, vote "yes".

Alumnus.

Goes to Lakeview

F. P. Cronmiller received his commission, as Receiver of the Lakeview Land Office last evening, and will leave Saturday morning for Lakeview, to assume the duties of his office.

County Commissioner Albert Walker arrived in the city yesterday to be here at the commencing of the regular term of County Court Monday morning.

The third of the series of basketball games will be played Friday night at Houston's opera house. The game will be between the High School and the White Star teams, which played such a close game last week.

TRIALS COST MONEY

Criminal Cases are an Especial Drain on County's Finances

CORPRON TRIAL COST $1445.19

Special Term of Circuit Court, Made Necessary by the Johnson Murder Case, Will Cost Klamath County About Three Thousand Dollars

It is conservatively estimated that the special term of Circuit Court, made necessary by the Johnson murder case, will cost Klamath County $3000. The expense up to the time of commencing the Petersteiner case, as close as it could be accurately figured was $1566. It is probable that several jurors, witnesses and other claims have not been submitted yet to the clerk, and this will bring the amount to about $1600. This is exclusive of anything connected with the Petersteiner case.

The Corpron trial cost the county $1445.19 and is itemized as follows:

Witnesses $ 337.00
Jurors serving 367.40

Jurors excused 549.00
Juror board, 14 men 110.19
Court reporter, 7 days 70.00
Special Bailiff, 7 days 21.00
Total $1445.19

The $249, estimate of the expense of Jurors who were excused, is figured on the fact that 18 of the regular panel were not accepted as Jurors but held over during the trial, $4 a day is believed to be a low estimate, including the salary and allowance for mileage. The special venire of 15 men is placed at an expense of $3 a day or a total of $45. This allows $2 a day for those who did not serve and an average of $1 for mileage.

Notes on Spring Styles

"Fashion is marching on in her usual way this spring and to those who know and can see ahead she is leading up to an entirely new type of woman," says Grace Margaret Gould, the fashion editor, in the March, the Spring fashion number of the Womens Home Companion.

"The change is to be a gradual one, however, but before long the fashionable woman will have banished for good and all the extravagantly large hat, the huge pompadour, the frills and the fur-bowls of her bodice, and the full skirt. The new tendency is all toward the straight up-and-down type of figure—sloping, slender hips, pulled-back, tight skirts trailing on the ground, plain, fitted waists, and sleeves of the old-fashioned tight-fitting sort which cling to the arm from shoulder to wrist.

"This is what we are coming to, so the authorities who make the fashions tell us, but as yet we have taken only a step or two on the way. This spring many small hats will be worn; the new corset effect gives unusual slenderness of line; cut-in-one dresses will be fashionable; mousquetaire sleeves which show the outline of the arm will be favored, and skirts will have lost their full effect."

Tax Sale Today

The sale of delinquent tax property by the sheriff, occurred at the court house today. On account of the temporary injunction preventing the sale of the holdings of the California & Oregon Land Company, there was very little valuable property left for sale, the greater portion being Whitelake City and Duffy's addition lots. This proves that property in Klamath county is too valuable to allow it to be sold for taxes.

THINKS HOGUE MISINFORMED

Mayor Says that City Council Treated Committee With Every Courtesy

Editor Evening Herald:— I noticed in last evening's Herald a letter signed by C. C. Hogue, and as his remarks were more or less personal, permit me to use a small portion of your valuable space to say that this gentleman is either inexcusably ignorant of the facts in the matter of which he has presumed to speak or else he is actuated by a willful and malicious desire to pick a quarrel with the Mayor.

The committee appointed by the Civic Federation to confer with the City Council at their last meeting was courteously received and not abused as the gentleman's remarks would lead one to believe. This committee consisted of Judge J. B. Griffith, Dr. Leonard and C. C. Brewer and I am sure that these gentlemen can but say that they were well treated by the members of the council who were present, who by the way did not meet in regular session at the time of the committee's visit, there being no quorum. Also the gentleman presumes to saddle onto the Mayor the entire responsibility for the purchase of the fire alarm system. He states that the Council was divided on this question and that the mayor settled the question and the Mayor was to blame, now if this were true at least one half of the Council would be as much to blame as the Mayor, if there be any blame attached to the matter of this purchase.

Now I do not wish to shirk my part of the responsibility of this purchase for I was then and am now heartily in accord with the action at the Council in the matter and if the gentleman will take the trouble to look at the record, he will find that this purchase was made by the unanimous vote of the Council and not settled by the Mayor and it was not necessary at this time nor has it ever been necessary during my incumbency to settle any matter of a tie vote.

Respectfully,
B. St. Geo Bishop, Mayor.

The ladies of Fort Klamath give a leap year party at that place tonight. A large number of candidates from here had planned to go up but decided not to on account of the condition of the roads, due to last night's snow storm.

W. T. Shive, who has been in Oakland and other California points, is expected home this evening.

For the best rig in town call at the Mammoth Stables. H. W. Straw, Proprietor.

PETERSTEINER CASE DELAYED

Juror Ira Hanson Taken Sick Trial Will Probably Be Concluded Tomorrow

The continuation of the trial of Petersteiner was delayed today, on account of the sickness of one of the jurors, Ira Hanson. Mr. Hanson suffered an attack of rheumatism yesterday and this morning was unable to leave his room. He is being attended by Dr. Merryman and it is believed he will not be able to be in court tomorrow.

GENERAL NEWS OF IMPORTANCE

According to the latest reports the American Car, in the New York to Paris race, was ahead. It was within 41 miles from Chicago and making progress at the rate of one mile an hour through the snow drifts.

The Oregon State Association of women has filed with the Secretary of state, ten objections as arguments in opposition to Woman's suffrage in Oregon, which is one of the initiative and referendum measures to be again voted upon at the coming election.

The New York World says that the State of New York cannot spare Governor Hughes—that it wants to keep him at Albany for two years more, instead of letting him go to Washington for four or eight year. Here is a striking tribute from an able and fair-minded paper belonging to the opposite party. The World says that Hughes has been one of the best Governors whom New York has ever had.

The decision of the judges, on the $1000 offered by Senator Bourne for the best essay favorable to a second elective term for Roosevelt, will be announced March 15. There are very few manuscripts submitted from Oregon.

The report that Senator Fulton attacked President Roosevelt in a speech made at a dinner given by Senator Ankeny, is denied in a statement made and signed by more than a dozen senators and others who were present and heard the remarks of Fulton.

With both Calkins and U'Ren in the field against him, Senator Fulton's chances of renomination are practically secured. Every public man has opposition, but the friends of Fulton are of the most loyal kind. There is no dividing his strength, but the more candidates in the field, the surer he is of election.
