REV. GEO. T. PRATT, Pastor

When F. J. Heney comes to Portland to give Senator Fulton "the other barrel" he may be placed on the defensive himself. Heney's own record is now being gone over with a fine-tooth comb and the men who are making the investigation say that if they confirm the reports they have heard of Heney's past, there will be red-hot reading for the voters of Oregon.

The Bonanza Bulletin this week makes a very sensational appearance in Tubby head letters. The gory fluid is used in heralding the welcome news of the advertisement for bids for the construction of the Clear Lake dam.

Mrs. F. L. Wright, who has been conducting a millinery store in the Malone building, has disposed of her stock and retired from business.

Wm. Wagner, former of the Herald office, who has been laid up with rheumatism, was able to be down town today.

Mrs. Richard Shore Smith entertains the ladies Whist Club this afternoon at her home on Evans heights.

The High School basket ball team won a sweeping victory over the White Stars last evening. The score was 46 to 24. This is the second game to the credit of the High School in the series.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melrose are spending a few days at Fort Klamath with friends.

To the Ladies of Klamath Falls

All interested in fine China, I would cordially invite to call at my studio Tuesday and Saturday afternoons, to see my new line of white China and studios. Orders for wedding and birthday presents solicited. Instruction given in China painting. Priced very reasonable. Miss A. S. Wason.

She Had No More to Say

They were returning home from the theater one evening. "I wonder why it is," said his wife, "that so few actresses travel under the management of their husbands?" "My dear," replied her husband, "have you ever reflected how difficult it is for most men to manage their wives?"

High Character Counts

High character counts in this, as in all other communities. A good man dies in the prime of life and in the midst of multifarious activities, and the representative men of the city hasten to show their appreciation of his life work, for no man of brains and conscience works merely for himself. He helps build up the community and raises the standard of conduct for all other men.—Maxwell Herald.

The Bird in Hand

Clara—So her engagement to George has been announced. But I thought she was pretty fond of Arthur. Governor—She was, but Art was slow, and time was wasting.—Kansas City Times.
