MONDAY APRIL 6, 1908

An Odd Tailored Gown.

This costume has a two founce skirt with long skirted coat. The lower edges of each founce are decorated with embroidery done in delicate pastel shades. The coat has a vest of tulle fastened across with three silk frays. The underarm portions are plain. Wide shaped revers, which narrow to a point at the belt, are embroidered like the skirt and bordered with a narrow band of embroidery. The sleeves are plaited through the center.

Purple Season Ahead.

To judge by displays in the millinery and dry goods shops just now this is to be a "purple year." That color in all its varying shades is practically all one sees in the shopping district, and already many of these new hats are to be seen worn in the streets. That the heads of department stores do not take much stock in hard times is shown by the fact that on their shelves, in preparation for the winter trade, they have piles of stuffs, such as crepe de chine, that are ticked at prices ranging from $7.50 to $15 a yard.

When You Buy Winter Gowns.

When you buy your winter gown get good material, good workmanship, cutting down expenses of trimmings and fancy frills that are never necessary and seldom becoming.

The modern dress of woman is beautiful, convenient and artistic. The errors are in the gross exaggeration of beautiful fashions and in combining grand ideas and cheap materials.

A plain dress well made is worth half a dozen elaborate ones badly cut and shabbily put together.

The "Dandy Horse."

The father of the bicycle tribe, the "dandy horse," was invented in 1815 by Baron von Drais of Paris. It consisted of two wheels about thirty inches in diameter running one in the wake of the other and connected by a beam of wood, upon which, half way from each end, was a saddle or perch, an arm rest in front completing the machine. It was propelled by kicking the ground with the right and left foot alternately. It was from such a crude affair that the modern bicycle was slowly evolved.

Taking No Chances.

The court appointed a young lawyer to defend a Georgia dandy, but after the prisoner had looked the lawyer over he said:

"No, Mister Judge, I reckon not. De las time I got in de penitentiary I had a man dat look des lak him to defend me, so des leave him out de case on gimme ten years!"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Usual Thing.

Mrs. Wickwire—If you go first, you will wait for me on the other shore, won't you, dear? Mr. Wickwire—I suppose so. I never went anywhere yet without having to wait for you.—Illustrated Bits.

Feminine Sympathy.

Miss Fytte—We have heard that my brother in Australia has been nearly drowned. They only just managed to save his life! The Visitor—Dear me, I am sorry to hear that!—Philadelphia Inquirer.

If thou takest time into thy affairs it will alay and arrange all things.—Apolodorus.

These Lots are Bargain Buys
at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
