buttoned in front and extends over the shoulders in narrow straps, which are ornamented with ecru lace on applique.

Fashions in Fall Frocks.
Among the first fall frocks now displayed is a walking costume of soft, light brown cloth. The bodice is made with oversleeves. The trimming is formed of applied stitched bands of material with velvet edging. The upper part of the bodice, the sleeves and lower part of the blouse are of green taffeta, braided with soutache. The belt carries out the material of the frock, and Irish lace forms the poke and sleeves.

Cheap Candles for Dinner Tables.
Candles add so much to the appearance of the dinner table that housekeepers should use them even more generally than is now the custom.

Often the expense proves a drawback, as these charming lights have a way of burning out very quickly.

When wax or prepared candles are used the cost is undoubtedly an item to be considered. The economical woman, however, will not choose these expensive varieties, but will buy instead the ordinary tallow dips. These if kept in a cold place between meals will burn for three nights.

If these tallow dips are used in the porcelain candle holders they not only may be used longer, but none will know whether they are of the finest or poorest quality.

The first expense of the patent candles, while quite inconsiderable in itself, is very soon more than equalled by the saving of being able to use the candle inside up to the tiniest tip.

Candles of any kind should be kept on the ice for at least twenty-four hours before being used. It will not only make them burn longer, but more brilliantly.

ABOUT QUALITY
From the day this store was opened to the public we have been conducting a campaign of higher education on clothing, and it is gratifying for us to know that once a man has purchased from us, he learns the value of quality as we expound it and not only comes here for his future needs but recommends us to his friends. We do not and never will advertise anything but facts, we do not offer garments at prices which must mean misrepresentation, and furthermore we guarantee every garment to be exactly as represented, not only at the time you purchase it, but for all times.
