Who Sure Was a Man! When William Allen rose up in the early seventies and surprised the country by being elected governor of Ohio on the Democratic ticket one of the obstacles he triumphed over was the charge of being an old man.

Fascination of Burglary. "My champion burglar," said Mr. Holmes, the police court missionary, "is a bookbinder by trade, who has been in jail on and off for half a century."

Dealing in "Cats and Dogs." No antiquarian pursues a more profitable or fascinating calling than the dealer in "cats and dogs," as the antiquities of Wall street are dubbed.

Phrases or Handicuffs. It is customary to remark that modern problems cannot easily be attacked because they are so complex. In many cases, I believe, it is really because they are so simple.

Oh, Say. Englishman—I wouldn't want to hear more than the first line of "The Star Spangled Banner" to know that it was written by an American. American—Why so? Englishman—The first two words tell me that.—Exchange.

Why He Was Smooth. "That convict I was talking to," said the visitor at the prison, "seems to be a smooth kind of man."

Couldn't Tell. "Is marriage a failure?" asked the old bachelor of the young bride.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS

are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
