Newspaper Law of Oregon.—Section 2882 of the laws of Oregon provides that whenever any person controlling a newspaper shall mail such newspaper to any person in this State without first receiving an order therefor, such newspaper shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person, whether said newspaper is received by the person to whom it is sent or not.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 1908.

An Indiana editor complains because the poets are trying to force the beautiful springtime. I suppose this fellow's winter overcoat is just as good as new.

A Colorado man hit his mother-in-law with a horseshoe, hoping it would bring him good luck. She has the horseshoe nailed over his cell door now.

A Kansas farmer of the name of Thomas Catt was hit by the piledriver attachment to a mule and killed. His wife and four little Catts mourn Tom Catt's untimely death.

Crook County has let the contract for the completion of their Court House, which was commenced last year. $57,000 will be expended in completing the building, which is to be of gray stone.

A Chicago man claims to have perfected a chemical process which will transform dead bodies into metal. He asserts that deceased husbands and wives may now be kept in the parlor as ornaments.

A country editor of Nebraska complains about the superstitions because, while rubbering for a white horse to associate with a red-headed girl he had just sighted, he stubbed his toe fell into a coal hole and broke three ribs.

Favorable report was ordered by the senate committee on postoffices and post roads on postal savings bank bills, the name being changed to "Postal Savings Depository" and a few minor changes of text being made. The measure embodies practically the views of Postmaster General Meyer.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature of Oklahoma by Senator Landrum, a Cherokee Indian, making it a misdemeanor to use the Indian figure, no matter of what material, as a sign for cigar or tobacco stores. The bill is practically certain to pass. The penalty for violation is a fine and twenty days in jail. Senator Landrum says the Indian is always angered when he sees one of these signs.

Leaving aside the patriotic motives which should cause every voter to lend all support possible to the National Guard, now a line of National defense, the economic aspect of the Armory bill should carry it at the June election alone. At present Oregon has rented armories for local companies at such points as Salem, Albany, Roseburg, Pendleton, Baker City Eugene and six other cities. These armories are not suitable for the purpose to which they are put and they cost the State exactly $5000 per year.

During recent months there has been much talk about good city government. The time to secure that good government is at the nominating conventions. The ward nominations were made this afternoon and the vote cast does not indicate that all citizens are interested in good government. Tomorrow the city nominating convention occurs. Every citizen has a duty to perform. He must, if he claims to be a good citizen, participate in making nominations for the city offices. In the convention is the place to begin good government and not in an indignation meeting.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
