HOODWINKING THE PEOPLE

Oregon is certainly up against it this year in the selection of a United States Senator. The much berated "machine rule" has been put out of business, and the people have been hoodwinked into the belief that they at last are having a voice in the state and national government. The facts are, the "people" now have less to say in the management of the nation's affairs than an unborn child has in determining its sex. Unscrupulous men, who want to get into office and power for their own personal gains, have easily hypnotized the people by stooping to the degrading level of the moral degenerate, by advocating anything or everything which might appeal to the unthinking mass and thereby secure a vote.

Oregon has been well represented in the United States Senate by Chas. W. Fulton, who is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers in that body, and who is conceded to have accomplished more for the good of the state, in proportion to the time he has served, than any other representative we have ever had. This man has been turned down by the "people," as certain politicians would have us believe and we are asked to choose between what? George Chamberlain, of whom the best that can be said is, that he is a clever politician, and H. M. Cake, who at this late day admits that all the accusations made against Fulton were false and only for the purpose of defeating him.

It now develops, that when Fulton was making the fight of his life in the Senate for his land grant bill, which would restore to Oregon the millions of acres of land illegally held by the Southern Pacific Company, our other worthy Senator Johnathan Bourne, who, by the way, was elected by the "people," was ready to trade his vote for the Fordney amendment, which was backed by the Booth-Kelly and Curtis Lumbering Company, for the consideration that those corporations saw to it that Senator Bingham, a close friend of Bourne, was allowed the exclusive privilege of naming the Lane County delegation to the state convention.

This is the condition which Oregon is up against. We have got to vote for a man, who, in the position of the chief executive of the state, would besmirch the name of the man whom he considered his strongest opponent, so as to defeat him, and a man, whose sincerity is so questionable that it will allow him to place personal gain ahead of the good of the state. It is certainly time for the people, in reality, to take a hand in politics, and nominate men who will be true representatives of the state and not allow Multnomah County to have everything, simply for the selfish purpose of hogging all the federal patronage.

If a proposition just put forth by Wisconsin print paper manufacturers is carried to a conclusion, Americans in the future will be reading newspapers printed with white ink. The chief points advanced for this revolutionary proposition are the preservation of forests, the saving of millions of dollars annually in pulp wood and the reduction in the price of print paper, to perhaps one-half the present price. can be made of old used newspapers and in fact almost any fibrous stick, while white paper requires spruce or hemlock.

Republican Candidates

U. S. Senator—Hon. H. M. Cke, aka U. S. Senator, is all that we can ask for in one candidate. Mr. Cke is a man of pleasing appearance, an eloquent speaker, a man that understands the political situation. While many regret that Mr. Fulton was beaten, yet we realize, by the vote Mr. Cke received in his home county that he is as popular there as Mr. Fulton was here. Mr. Cke is deserving of his party vote.

Congressman—W. C. Hawley points to his past record with pride; in fact his record is his platform.

Justice of the Supreme Court—R. S. Bean needs no special mention.

Dairy and Food Commissioner—J. W. Bailey is also a Winner.

R. R. Commissioner—T. K. Campbell is a man for the people and is entitled to the support of the entire party.

Prosecuting Attorney—D. V. Kuykendall, as Prosecuting Attorney, is practically without opposition. He is well qualified and Klamath and Lake Counties are to be congratulated on having been able to place so competent an attorney in nomination for the place.

State Senator—Geo. H. Merryman, as State Senator, is a rising young Statesman having served one term in the Lower House and demonstrated his ability.

Representatives—Our State Representatives, H. P. Belknap and H. A. Brattain, are strong candidates and will more than poll their party strength.

Sheriff—W. B. Barnes is well qualified to fill the office, having served as assessor of Lake County, also as deputy sheriff. He has a good education, is an active man, well acquainted with all the surrounding county and make an efficient officer. Vote for him.

County Clerk—C. R. Delap, as County Clerk, is well known to you all, having served this county as School Superintendent in a way that is a credit to himself. He is now serving as Deputy Sheriff of this county and is known to be a thoroughly competent man.

County Treasurer—L. Alva Lewis, as Treasurer, is well known to you all and he points with pride to his past record.

School Superintendent—J. G. Swan is a man that has been conspicuously before the public for the past five years and has accomplished wonders in educational lines. He is well fitted for the place.

Assessor—Bert E. Withrow, as Assessor, is the right man in the right place, having served a number of years in the Abstract Office and having a complete abstract of every piece of deeded land in the county, puts him in a position to better judge the value of real estate than any other man we know.

County Surveyor—M. D. Williams has been conspicuously before the public during his term of office. His work speaks for his efficiency.

County Commissioner—C. J. Swingle is a pioneer of Klamath County. He is a conservative business man and has made a success with his own business venture, and it is fair to assume that he will do as well with the county business.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath County.

John Koonz plaintiff, vs. Amanda Ella Koonz defendant, suit in equity for divorce.

In the name of the state of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Saturday, June 13th, 1908, being the last day prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, the first publication of which being on Saturday, May 2nd, 1908, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, filed herein, to-wit: for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant.

This summons is served by publication in the Evening Herald, by order of Hon. Henry L. Benson, Judge of the Circuit Court for the first judicial district of Oregon, dated May 1st, 1908, which order requires summons to be published once a week for six consecutive weeks from the 1st day of May, 1908.

SHORT STORIES.

Only one person in a thousand reaches sixty years.

The log cut on Arrostook (Me.) waters this year will amount to approximately 123,700,000 feet.

Many rare and valuable paintings have just been discovered in one of the subterranean passages of the State college at Pueblo, Mexico.

Two horses belonging to a former minister to France and kept in luxurious idleness near Milton, Del., were shipped to France because the minister's widow desired to see the animals.

Measuring ten feet six inches, an octopus while being killed at Tooradina, Victoria, twined a tentacle so firmly around the foot of one of its captors that the terrible membrane had to be cut to free the man.

John Brown's wagon, in which he made pilgrimages during his crusade against slavery, was destroyed by fire in Iowa City, Ia., recently. The wagon was left there by Brown many years ago and had been preserved by Herbert S. Fairall, a pioneer newspaper man of Iowa City.

The Sporting World.

Syracuse may take up golf.

Yale plans an $80,000 boathouse.

Schommer, captain of Chicago's championship team, is not only a star basketball player, but also their best high jumper.

Jack McMasters, the former Harvard trainer, is now handling the baseball team, rowing crews and track candidates at Annapolis.

Shady G., 2:10 1/2, and Directness, 2:11 1/2, are two recent sales to the Austrians. The price paid for the first named is placed at $5,000.

R. M. Flick of Brady, Pa., has purchased from L. E. Brown of Delavan, Ill., the three-year-old Wilful Parole, 2:20 1/2, by Parole, 2:10, dam Annie Baron, by Baron Wilkes.

The National league staff of umpires for the coming season is as follows: O'Day, Emalle, Johnstone, Klein, Rigler and Rudderham. The last of these was formerly a pitcher on the Providence team and takes the place of Carpenter.

There really is no use in getting mad, but a great many people make use of it.

Self conceit should not be kept upon dress parade if kept at all, but it certainly is the balm of Gilead for bruised feelings.

On her wedding day the Danish peasant girl wears a simple crown of myrtle with her national costume—varying with the district, but always charming—and pots of myrtle are carefully cherished by girlish hands through the long winters in anticipation of the great event.

A lion that had been ill asked a sheep if his breath was bad. The sheep said "Yes," and the lion bit off her head for a fool. A wolf, asked the same question, said "No." Him the lion killed for a liar. A fox in answer to the question said he had a cold in his head and could not smell.

We cannot divide our work from ourselves nor isolate our future from our qualities. A ship might as well try to sail north with her jib and east with her foresail and south with her mainmast as a man to go one way in conduct and another way in character.—Henry van Dyke

"I, sir," remarked the self important statesman, "was never approached with a proposition of graft in my life." "That fact," answered Senator Borghum, "may be a recognition of your honesty, and then again it may be a reflection on your influence."—Washington Star.

Young Lady (entering music publisher's shop, to young man sorting music)—Have you "Kissed Me by Moonlight?" Young Man (turning round with surprise)—It must be the other young man behind the counter. I've only been here a week!—London Standard.

Mr. Church—Whew! How it's raining. Lend me your umbrella, dear. I've got to run over to the vestry meeting. Mrs. Church—But why not use that umbrella you've been carrying all week? Mr. Church—What! To the vestry meeting? Why, that's where I got it.—Philadelphia Press.

A visitor to a stately ancestral home was being shown round by an old retainer. He paused before a painting. "Exquisite!" he exclaimed rapturously. "That must be an old master." "No, sir," the guide replied, "that's old master—It's old missis!"—London Scraps.

A Great Excuse. Mother to Frank—How is it that you're late home every night? Frank—Well, no wonder; we've got such a big clock in our school.

Mother—Why, what has the clock to do with it? Frank—Cause it's so big it takes the hands an awful long while to get round it. If we had a clock like papa's little one I'd get home a great deal quicker.
