VOTE BY PRECINCTS

There seems to be not a very clear understanding as to the working of the Local Option law and for the benefit of those who have not studied the law, we would explain. Klamath County will vote for or against prohibition for the entire county at the election June 1st next. This amounts to a vote upon the question in each precinct in the county. See section 10 of the state local option law which says: "A petition for an election in each individual precinct in such county or subdivision thereof shall be considered as and shall have the effect of a petition for an election in each individual precinct in such county or sub-division thereof, and the county court shall issue an order of prohibition for each and every precinct in the county voting "For Prohibition" notwithstanding the county as a whole and the sub-division (if any) voted "Against Prohibition." If the whole county should go "dry" all the precincts therein are "dry" under the law regardless of how they voted at the election. If the county as a whole goes "wet" only the precincts are "wet" as vote that way.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

A bill that is of big interest to farmers, stockmen and agriculturists generally, has just been referred to the senate committee on agriculture and forestry by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, acting on behalf of his colleague, Senator Hanabrough. It proposes to establish a national commission of co-operative service to promote agricultural co-operative organization and to appropriate money for its maintenance. It creates a commission of five members to be known as the National Commission of Co-Operative Service. The duties of this commission of co-operative service are to promote such co-operative enterprises as it may deem wise; and to that end it is to organize by the election from among its members of a chairman and a recording secretary, and to elect a chief of the co-operative service, who must not be a member of the commission, and who is to be its executive officer.

The chief of the co-operative service and his assistants, acting under the commission, are to collect and supply to the co-operative agricultural organization information concerning organization, managing and disbanding co-operative enterprises, and may assist co-operative agricultural organizations with public auditing, and in other ways assist those who wish to retain their individual business but need to delegate to co-operative agricultural organizations functions which cannot be so well performed by the individual.

The commission may enter into co-operative relations with similar organizations and with state officers to work conjointly and the sum of $50,000 a year is set aside to be expended under the authority of the commission, to be used in carrying out the provisions of this bill, which is to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ITS ALL OVER

Manager Hitchcock of the Taft campaign has given out the following statement: "State conventions in California, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon and Washington and five district conventions in California two in Oregon and one each in Ohio, North Carolina and Texas elected fifty-two delegates and instructed them for Taft. The total number of delegates pledged to Taft is now 574. Only the Texas state convention and seven district conventions remain to be held. The Texas state conventions and four of the district conventions will instruct for Taft, increasing the total number in the Taft column to 586, or ninety-five more than a majority of the Republican national convention."

A busy merchant who had not taken a holiday for years, in which time every other member of his family had enjoyed many outings, concluded to give himself a rest of a week or two and started for Scotland. When he had been gone a day he received a telegram from his wife to this effect: "Our house was entirely destroyed by fire last night. The children and I escaped unharmed. Come home at once." MARIA. To this, after reflecting a moment, he replied as follows: "What is the use of coming home when there is no home to come to? Take the children to mother's. Stay there with them till I join you and don't worry." FRANK. -London Heraps.
