Timbuctoo will be capital of the world and Bantu the international language in A. D. 4,000 according to Professor Newton Scott of the University of Michigan. This prediction is made in an article on "A Substitute for the Classics," in the School Review, issued by the University of Chicago. Professor Scott says English is superior to Latin and Greek but inferior to Bantu and he predicts that the Bantu literature will surpass anything in the world's literary history.

"Honey, one of the most nutritious and delicate of foods, should be eaten more than it is," said a cooking expert. "Bought in the comb, it is bound to be unadulterated and this pure honey will keep its friends free from sore throat and bronchial troubles. I have not had a sore throat since six years ago, when I took to eating honey. My doctor tells me he often recommends honey with excellent results for diseases of the throat. I know a number of ladies who use honey as a cosmetic. They apply it to the skin, rub it in well, then wash it off with hot water. The result is a finer textured complexion, a glowing color and a young fresh look."

The American Federation of Labor is sending out to every section of the country the "declarations" upon and for which it stands. They are as follows:

1. The abolition of all forms of involuntary servitude except as a punishment of crime.
2. For free schools, free text books and compulsory education.
3. Unrelenting protest against the issuance and abuse of injunction process in labor disputes.
4. A workday of not more than eight hours in the twenty-four hour day.
5. A strict recognition of not over eight hours per day on all federal, state and municipal work, and at not less than the prevailing per diem wage rate of the class of employment in the vicinity where the work is performed.
6. Release from employment one day in seven.
7. The abolition of the contract system on public work.
8. The municipal ownership of public utilities.
9. The abolition of the sweat shop system.
10. Sanitary inspection of factory, workshop, mine and home.
11. Liabilities of employers for injury to body or loss of life.
12. The nationalization of telegraph and telephone.
13. The passage of antichild-labor laws in states where they do not exist and rigid defense of them where they have been enacted into law.
14. Woman suffrage co-equal with man suffrage.
15. Suitable and plentiful playgrounds for children in all cities.
16. The initiative and referendum and the imperative mandate and right to recall.

17. Continued agitation for the public bath system in all cities.

18. Qualifications in permits to build of all cities and towns that there shall be bathrooms and bathroom attachments in all houses or compartments used for habitation.

19. We favor a system of finance whereby money shall be issued exclusively by the government, with such regulations and restrictions as will protect it from manipulation by the banking interests for their own private gain.

20. We favor a system of United States government postal savings banks.

The above is a partial statement of the demands that organized labor in the interest of the workers—indeed, of all the people of our country—make upon modern society.

Higher wages, shorter workday, better homes, better and safer workshops, factories, mills and mines. In a word, a better, higher and nobler life.

Conscious of the justice, wisdom and nobility of our cause, the American Federation of Labor appeals to all men and women of labor to join with us in the great movement for its achievement.

More than two million wage earners who have reaped the advantages of organization and federation appeal to their brothers and sisters of toil to unite with them and participate in the glorious movement with its attendant benefits.
