KLAMATH FALLS, MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 15, 1908

GAY ST. LOUIS

Apparently St. Louis is more blase even than "Gay Paris," for the much talked of Directoire gown is being worn by some of the leaders of society. Missouri women have been "shown" and the new gown made such a hit that three of the five models displayed by a local shop have been sold. The chief of police and his men are shuddering to think of what will devolve upon them when they are worn upon the street. In addition it is said orders for nearly a dozen more such creations have been placed. One of the gowns shown was a replica of those which created such a sensation at Longchamps, and hundreds of women have flocked to the store to make an inspection. The gowns made a distinct hit, too, with a dozen men of iron nerve who, with the Missouri instinct, also butted in to be "shown."

Eugene's city ordinance, which declares keeping or storing liquors in one's house or place of business to be a nuisance, has been held legal in all its details by Judge Harris, of the Circuit Court. Soon after the ordinance was passed by the council nearly a year ago, Charles Mayhew, of that city, was arrested for violating it. He was tried in the Police Court and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and to imprisonment in the city jail for 60 days. The matter was carried up to the Circuit Court, and has been under advisement by Judge Harris until now, in the meantime the defendant being out on bonds. The judge has now passed on the case, declaring the ordinance legal and affirming the decision of the Police Court.

The Republican Convention has reached the button and badge stage. From the appearance of the output, the array will outshine all previous campaigns. The first buttons were those of William H. Taft. The face of the smiling Secretary is done in a terra cotta color plate the size of a saucer. The button is hung from a red, white and blue ribbon with "Taft" in black letters across its face. The regulation Taft button is of terra cotta color the size of a dime. Other buttons on the market are those of Cannon, Hughes, Knox, Fairbanks Foraker and LaFollette.

The Republican convention will meet in Chicago tomorrow to select candidates for President and Vice-President. It is predicted that Taft will receive the nomination for President on the first ballot, and interest in the convention has reverted to the nominee for the second place. The number of possibilities for that position has been increased daily.

It looks as if some one was trying to prepare themselves for the dry spell after July 1st. On two nights of last week attempts were made to break into the Wholesale Liquor House and the Bank Exchange. It is believed that the attempt on the former was successful and a good stock was secured.

Texas is preparing to make the hottest fight she ever put up in a Democratic national convention for another state's candidate. "John Mitchell for vice-president," is the Texas slogan.

Roseburg officials are considering an occupation tax to raise revenue for lighting the city. The lights have recently been turned off on account of lack of funds to meet the bills.
