C. D. Willson is closing out his wholesale stock of liquors cheap as the cheapest.

Allen Sloan has sold his interest in the Klamath County Abstract Company to his partners, Bert Withrow and Don J. Zumwalt. Mr. Sloan will leave shortly for Rogue River Valley, where he will remain for a time and will there complete the study of law.

C. T. Oliver returned a few days ago from Wood River valley. He says that boring for artesian water is meeting with success and that two more wells have been sunk and a flow struck at a depth of probably 210 feet. The boring machine now in that section will be kept busy during the entire Summer.

Will Build Road

Col. W. H. Holabird is in the city today from Pelican Bay. He is now at work on the matter of having an automobile road built from the Harriman resort to Fort Klamath. J. D. Church has been over the ground to determine the feasibility of the road, and there is every assurance that it will be built.

Mr. Harriman will bear part of the expense of the road and it is proposed that the county pay part. The highway will prove a convenience to all travel through that section of the county.
