KLAMATH FALLS, MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 22, 1908

JAMES S. SHERMAN

James Schoolcraft Sherman is the Republican nominee for vice-president, was born in Utica, N. Y., October 24, 1855, and save for short intervals occupied in travel, has spent his entire life there. He received both an academic and collegiate education and shortly after his graduation from Hamilton college in 1878 was admitted to the bar.

He entered politics in 1880 and four years later was elected mayor of Utica on the Republican ticket, receiving a handsome majority in a city always considered Democratic. At Saratoga in 1895 he was selected to preside over the deliberations of the Republican convention, and was later chosen orator on many notable occasions.

He was elected to the fiftieth, fifty-first and fifty-third congresses as a Republican, and re-elected to the fifty-fourth, receiving 22,510 votes against 16,269 votes for John D. Henderson, Democrat.

Congressman Sherman was for some time chairman of the Republican campaign committee and made a record for himself through the manner in which he got subscriptions.

On the floor of congress he made a stirring speech against the building of the Panama canal, and declared that America should not accept it as a gift. Despite his attitude in this matter he has for years been one of the staunchest friends of President Roosevelt and on a number of occasions has conferred with him regarding the present campaign.

While gathering campaign contributions he introduced a 2-cent railroad bill in congress. He was Speaker Reed's most intimate friend in congress during the latter years of his life, and presided in the house more than any other man.

He introduced the anti-ticket scalping bill and many other measures. His party has often offered him excellent positions in the employ of the government.

William Sulzer, who has been in conference with Charles F. Murphy, is authority for the statement that the entire 78 votes of the Tammany delegation to the Denver convention will be cast for W. J. Bryan on the first ballot. If there is the least sign of disaffection the unit rule will be enforced. Sulzer says it is fully expected that Mr. Bryan will be nominated on the first ballot and that the nomination will be made unanimous before the roll call is completed. Murphy will go to Denver several days in advance of the delegation.
