Cattle Stampede

A band of 200 head of cattle, being driven from Myrtle Creek to Klamath County by the Dixon boys last week, went on a stampede and a number of the cattle were killed. The animals became frightened at a train that came up behind them at Rocky Point, just north of Buckles station and stampeded. At the Stevenson place is a deep gully with a wagon road only wide enough to permit the passage of a single vehicle. When the herd struck this gully they rolled into it until it was full and the remainder passed over them to the other side. Three of the lot were killed and a number crippled.
