Will Be Great

Nothing is being left undone by the band boys that would have a tendency to provide pleasure on the excursion to Oleessa on the Fourth. Arrangements are being made not only to care for a large crowd, but also to provide entertainment for all of the excursionists. The band will furnish music coming and going and also at the resort. The tickets will be but one dollar for the round trip and will be good until Sunday night. The boat will leave the landing at 8 o'clock sharp, arriving at its destination early in the day.

Notice

The following stones will be closed on July 4th: Van Tigger Bros., Shive Bros. Company, Schellack & Daggett Company.

Every singer and everyone who has a fair voice, and those who are interested in music ought to attend the Summer Music School.
