The ladies of Silver Lake have organized a baseball club and have challenged an aggregation of the all bachelors to a matched game on the afternoon of the Fourth.

While making a trial trip yesterday the plunger on the new steamer Mazama blew out and put the boat out of commission temporarily.

Old Verse Devised.
There was a crooked man who rode a crooked mile,
Spoke on a crooked stump with a crooked sort of smile,
But the people wouldn't believe that he had a crooked nature,
So they sent another crook to a crooked legislature.
—Detroit Tribune.

Next in Line.
Mrs. Hayson (with letters)—Hiram says that the barn dance is all the rage in the city at present.
Mr. Hayson—An' I suppose them stuck up city snobs is a callin' it the garage hop, hey?—Puck.

Silent Success.
Don't worry if you claim no praise,
Thing not of the applause you've missed,
In these somewhat peculiar days
You're lucky if you are not hissed.
—Atlanta Constitution.

The Retort Direct.
"Haven't you forgotten something, sir?" asked the waiter, with outstretched palm.
"No," replied the patron; "it isn't my memory, but my disposition, that's at fault."—Judge.

An Old Timer.
"Wrinkles, wrinkles, little start!
I wonder old how old you are.
The makeup art has more ago along,
For you were a star when I was young."
—Baltimore American.

The Careful New Girl.
"If Mr. Brown calls, tell him I am not in."
"Yesum, but"—
"Well, what?"
"If he doesn't call, what shall I tell him?"

Good For That.
"What have you in that bottle?"
"Nerve tonic," replied the druggist.
"Is it good?"
"Oh, yes; it sells excellently."

But He Does.
"Where does he get his money?"
"I don't know where he gets his, and I don't care. What I am interested in is knowlog just how he gets mine."

Intelligent Cars.
"Did you take the train?"
"No; it took me."
"What did it take you for—a blooming idiot?"

Compromises on a Dime.
"How is his war against tipping coming on?"
"He is giving no quarter."

Not Synonymous.
"Can you make me a loan?"
"No, but I can let you alone, if that will do."

Will Be Great

Nothing is being left undone by the band boys that would have a tendency to provide pleasure on the excursion to Odessa on the Fourth. Arrangements are being made not only to care for a large crowd, but also to provide entertainment for all of the excursionists. The band will furnish music coming and going and also at the resort. The tickets will be but one dollar for the round trip and will be good until Sunday night. The boat will leave the landing at 8 o'clock sharp, arriving at its destination early in the day.

Notice

The following stores will be closed on July 4th: Van Riper Bros., Shive Bros. Company, Schallack & Daggett Company.
