Objects of Survey

These things are not to be expected or looked for in a soil examination. This work must be conservative above all else and must refer to the betterment of the agriculture of the district, either by pointing out undesirable conditions or calling to our notice possibilities which to the present have not been taken into account.
 Moving Pictures Tonight.
 The cameragraph picture entertainment will open again this evening with an entire new line of pictures. Tonight "Satan at Play," "A quiet Hotel," "Dreamland," the greatest colored transformation picture ever given in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Edyth Cox in illustrated songs. Admission 10 cents.
 Very Interesting Sermon.
 Rev. P. Conklin, of the Methodist church, delivered a very interesting sermon yesterday evening, using for his material extracts from four addresses that he heard while attending Chautauqua at Ashland. He spoke to a large congregation and his remarks were to the point and exceedingly well illustrated.
 Farewell Performance.
 The Mong Theatrical company left this morning for Lakeview. The troupe will play at Bonanza tonight and will play for several nights at Lakeview upon their arrival in that town. Following the Lakeview engagement they will visit Alturas and a number of other California towns and will then return to this city.
 The farewell play Saturday night was not largely attended and, owing to the illness of one of the members of the troupe, it was necessary to change the play. Instead of presenting "Down on the Farm" the play "Comrades" was given again, giving general satisfaction.
