A Second Concert.

In accordance with the expressed wish of most of those present another concert will be given at the opera house by the Pasmores, assisted by Mrs. Zumwalt, on Thursday evening (not on Friday, for the hall is engaged for that night.) A great program will be given at the second concert, including the magnificent trio in B Major, by Brahms, which the Pasmores played in concert in Berlin with great success; the violin concerto in B Minor by Wieniawski, a wonderfully beautiful and difficult work; the Russian Airs by Wieniawski; a Barcarole for cello, composed by Mr. Pasmore; Schumann's Trauenerel, arranged as a quartet by Mr. Pasmore; Doff's by Nevin, sung to an accompaniment of piano, violin and cello, by Mrs. Zumwalt; the great duo from Elijah between the widow and the prophet Elijah; sung by Mrs. Zumwalt and Mr. Pasmore. By general request the concert will close with more Southern Airs. Mr. Pasmore will make explanatory remarks, as at the first concert. Tickets will be on sale at Dunham's Confectionery store, all day Thursday and at the opera house in the evening.

They are swell and down to date—they have the quality and are useful—some new things at McHattan's.

You cannot afford to miss the musical treat at the opera house tomorrow night.

J. P. Hazen was in the city from Dorris today.

Reserved seats for the Pasmore concert tomorrow night now on sale at Dunham's.

The Southern Pacific office in this city now has on sale tickets to all the main points in Europe.

Miss June Grigsby went to Dorris this morning.

Mrs. A. S. Wasson and son left today for Sioux City, Iowa, where they will make their home.

Geo. O. Brandenburg, Ralph T. Boyd and C. H. Underwood have returned from a few days outing at Spring creek.
