CENTRAL RANCH SOLD.

Mrs. Ankeny Becomes Sole Owner of Valuable Property.

A deal was consummated this morning whereby Mrs. H. B. Ankeny became the sole owner of the Central ranch, comprised of 1120 acres, all under the government grant and possessed of a permanent paid up water right. Heretofore the ranch has been owned jointly by Mr. H. B. Ankeny and Mrs. Ankeny, but now the entire property belongs to Mrs. Ankeny, who desires to hold the property in her name. At this time it is not for sale as a whole or in part. It will be available to those who are anxious to buy.

Mazama Strikes Rock.

The steamer Mazama struck a rock yesterday morning as she was leaving the landing. No damage was done to the boat according to the report brought in by Admiral Alex. Noster. The boat made a trip up the lake yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Oscar Gates as pilot.

FIRE BELOW DUNSMUIR

Destructive Blaze in Forest Threatens Railroad Bridge.

Advised yesterday from this afternoon by C. T. Day and to the effect that a very destructive forest fire is raging below Dunsmuir and that one of the railroad bridges is on fire. All of the available men have been taken from Dunsmuir on a special train to fight the fire and to save the bridge, so that the trains will not be affected.

Students Visiting Here.

As the society notes in the Sunday Oregon Journal was the following note about Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bettman, who arrived here with the excursionists yesterday evening: Henry L. Bettman, violinist, leaves this week with Mrs. Bettman for a three weeks' stay with friends at Klamath Falls. Lately Mr. Bettman gave up the direction of the Nörtoria orchestra which he has been conducting since the hotel opened. He took over temporarily the direction of the Hotel Perkins orchestra for a few days. He may consent to remain with these players next season.
